

Contents

Special Issue: Challenges of LGBT research in the 21st Century

Editorial

Introduction to the Special Issue: Challenges of LGBT research in the 21st century 371

José Fernando Serrano Amaya and Oriol Ríos González

Articles

Decolonizing the boomerang effect in global queer politics: A new critical framework for sociological analysis of human rights contestation 382

Matthew Waites

The geopolitics of moral panic: The influence of Argentinian neo-conservatism in the genesis of the discourse of 'gender ideology' 402

José Manuel Morán Faúndes

Activist performance and performative activism towards intersectional gender and sexual justice in contemporary South Africa 418

Tamara Shefer

A retrospective of LGBT issues on US college campuses: 1990–2020 435

Susan Rankin, Jason C Garvey and Antonio Duran

Sexual activism and 'actually existing eroticism': The politics of victimization and 'lynching' in Argentina 455

Mario Pecheny, Luca Zaidan and Mirna Lucaccini

Teachers' and pupils' perspectives on homosexuality: A comparative analysis across European countries 471

Kristof De Witte, Kaat Iterbeke and Oliver Holz