

Contents

Preface .....	7
Mimma Congedo: The Interpretation of Natural Elements as Metaphysical Symbols in the Aesthetics of Ananda Kentish Coomaraswamy .....	11
Gyula Wojtilla: On some natural devices describing female beauty in Sanskrit poetry .....	23
Lidia Sudyka: Passion of the indigo colour .....	37
Daniela Rossella: Wonderful India: interior and outer landscapes in Indian classical poetry.....	53
David Smith: Animality and related realms of being in Bāṇa's Kādambarī .....	79
Anna Bonisoli Alquat: The description of dawn in Kālidāsa's Raghuvamśa .....	93
Anna Trynkowska: The Description of Sunrise in Māgha's Śiśupālavadhā XI, 43-67 .....	103
Cinzia Pieruccini: Landscapes of feelings: Descriptions of forests in the Rāmāyaṇa .....	115
Chettiarthodi Rajendran: Encountering the forest: Kālidāsa's perceptions on hunting.....	131
Camillo Alessio Formigatti: A Description of the Ocean in Buddhist Poetic Literature: Āryaśūra's Supāragajātaka and its Sources .....	143
Tiziana Pontillo: The names of fruits, roots and flowers included in Kālidāsa's works and the Aṣṭādhyāyī rules IV, 3, 163-167 with their commentaries.....	161

Jaroslav Vacek: The dog in Sangam literature – as a part of the description of nature.....	177
Eva Wilden: Agricultural Metaphors in Sangam Literature.....	191
Danuta Stasik: Love throughout the year. Descriptions of the seasons and the twelve months of the year according to Keśavdās' Kavi-priyā .....	211
Stefania Cavaliere: Devotion and Refinement. A description of the six seasons in Tulasīdāsa's Rāmacaritamānasa and Keśavadāsa's Rāmacandrikā .....	225
Dagmar Marková: Fog and rain in the Hindi New Short Story .....	257
Martin Hříbek: Flowery images of spring in Rabīndrasaṅgīt .....	271
Petr Duda: Flowers in Hindu ritual literature.....	287
Petr Holman: Trees in the Poetic Works of Otokar Březina.....	299
Supplement.....	319