
Contents

1 Introduction and Concept Definitions	1
Mikko Saarikoski
Part I Clinical Learning Environment: Theoretical and Practical Principles
2 The Main Elements of Clinical Learning in Healthcare Education	7
Mikko Saarikoski
3 Methodological Issues and Development of the CLES Scales	17
Mikko Saarikoski
4 Country Validation of the CLES-Scale: Linguistic and Cultural Perspectives	31
María Flores Vizcaya-Moreno and Rosa María Pérez-Cañaveras
5 The CLES Scale as a National Quality Tool for Clinical Learning and Teaching	47
Riitta Meretoja, Tiina Tarr, and Camilla Strandell-Laine
Part II Ensuring the High Quality of a Clinical Learning Environment
6 A Good Clinical Learning Environment as an Organizational Challenge	57
Marco Tomietto
7 Empowering the Professionalization of Nurses Through Mentorship: Implementation of the CLES Framework in an International Project	71
Olga Riklikienė and Erna Tichelaar
8 Cooperation Between Clinical Staff and Nurse Teachers	81
Leena Salminen and Camilla Strandell-Laine

Part III The CLES Framework: New Perspectives and Areas for Development

- 9 How Can Patient Relationships and Patient Experiences
Be Better Utilised in Students' Clinical Learning? 91
Arja Suikkala
- 10 New Ways and Environments for Using the CLES Framework. 103
Kristina Mikkonen and Olga Riklikiene
- 11 Possibilities of m-Learning and New Technologies
in Clinical Teaching. 113
Camilla Strandell-Laine and Leena Salminen