

CONTENTS

7 Preface by Anne-Marie Gillion Crowet

9 Foreword by Pierre Loos

13 THE NAGAS

15 INTRODUCTION

15 The context

15 The sense of beauty

19 I. IN SEARCH OF THE NAGA HILLS

22 First visions

23 Facing the redcoats

28 The birth and development of Nagaland

31 II. IDENTITY AND BELIEFS

31 Who are the Nagas?

32 A mythical origin

34 Migration and cultural diversity

35 Clans and totems

35 The ritual world

38 Fertility

39 On the 'soul'

43 Feasts of merit

48 Headhunting

57 III. ART AND SOCIETY

57 War and conflict

60 Village, khel and morung

63 Social organisation

63 From birth to marriage

67 Death as accomplishment

68 Men and women

69 Modes of power

70 An agricultural people

71 Commerce and exchange

73 Arts and crafts

78 Naga architecture and woodcarving

79 The art of the woodcarver

80 Ornaments and status symbols

90 Tattooing

99 THE PATHS OF CREATION

101 Preamble

105 Heads on display

111 The universal head

123 Substitutes and adornment

133 The art of Naga sculpture

149 From carving to adornment

161 Drawn figures

165 Teeth for teeth

181 Blood for blood

185 The multiplication of heads

217 Heads, torques and discs

229 Heads and ancestors

235 The virility of the ancestor and the spirit

245 The adorned warrior

253 The shadow spirit

255 A trophy head

261 The tiger man

269 The divinity of the hornbill

273 The monkey double

279 Colonial substitution

283 Headdresses and men

289 Hybrid symbolism

297 Conches and cowries

317 Accoutrements and bones

327 Decorated arms

341 Necklaces, beads and bells

365 Weapons and daos

373 Dancing with the beyond

383 Belts and textile work

389 Artist and craftsman

395 Conclusion

398 Acknowledgements by Anne-Marie Gillion Crowet

402 Notes

409 Captions

419 Selected Bibliography