
CONTENTS

Preface, xi

Part I. Theory and Context

Introduction. From Ghost to Lesson, 3

- 1 On the Business of Lessons, 9
- 2 Legitimacy, Insurgency, and the International Context of the Vietnam War, 30
- 3 Analytical Framework of Legitimacy, Insurgency, and Intervention, 49

Part II. Vietnam, the Deviant Case

- 4 Historical Setting: The Earthly Struggle for Heaven's Mandate, 85
- 5 Framework Analysis: The War without a Lesson?, 111

Part III. The Comparative Prism

- 6 China, 1920–1949: The Long March to Liberation, 133
- 7 Greece, 1941–1949: Three Rounds to Albania, 152
- 8 The Philippines, 1946–1956: Liberation Deflected, 173
- 9 Malaya, 1948–1960: The Unmaking of an Insurgency, 198
- 10 Cambodia's "Autogenocide" and the Disappearance of Laos,
1949–1975, 222

Part IV. Lessons

- 11 Findings from the Prism and an Application:
Sendero Luminoso of Peru, 265
- Conclusion. The New Era: Wilson's Triumph over Lenin, 314

Appendix 1. Literatures of the Framework, 323

Appendix 2. A Tale of Two Strategies: An Alternative Explanation, 329

Appendix 3. Assumptions, Thematic Questions, and Propositions, 347

Notes, 351

Index, 415