DEATH ON THE NILE

A BBC Radio 4 full-cast dramatisation starring John Moffatt as the great Belgian detective

Linnet Ridgeway has led a charmed life. Blessed with beauty, youth and enormous wealth, she has everything anyone could wish for. And when she marries her best friend's fiancé, Simon Doyle, she has a devoted husband too.

But as the happy couple set out on an idyllic honeymoon cruise up the River Nile, storm clouds gather. Linnet's former friend, Jacqueline de Bellefort, follows her and Simon wherever they go and Linnet senses she is in danger.

At first her fears seem groundless. But an attempt is made first on her life and then on her husband's. Eventually the killer is successful, and Linnet is found horribly murdered.

With an obvious suspect who cannot possibly have committed the crime, it is up to Hercule Poirot to probe the depths of a remarkable criminal mind and discover the dark secret behind what is only the first in a series of inexplicable deaths. Nail varnish, a velvet stole and a hand-carved rosary are among the unlikely clues that Poirot must piece together to come up with the solution and find the murderer...

Another remarkable mystery from the Queen of Crime, dramatised with a full cast including Rosemary Leach, Donald Sinden and Robert Daws.
