

Contents

List of Tables, Boxes and Extracts	x
Acknowledgements	xii
List of Abbreviations	xiv
Key Legislation	xv
1 Social Work with Older People: Changing Contexts	1
Introduction	1
Social work in context	3
Social work practice with older people	4
The social work–gerontology research gap	12
Social work training, education and continuing professional development	14
Conclusion	17
2 Developing Critical Gerontological Social Work	19
Introduction	19
Social work with older people: values, skills and knowledge	20
Critical gerontology	22
A framework for critical gerontological social work	29
Conclusion	33
3 Risk and Older People	35
Introduction	35
Critical reflection	36
The rise of risk	37
Theorizing risk	40
Widening our understanding of risk	43
Risk and critical gerontological social work in practice	46
Conclusion	52

4	Social Work with Older People with Dementia	54
	Introduction	54
	Biomedical perspectives	55
	Social models and dementia	57
	The development of person-centred approaches to dementia	58
	Widening our understanding of dementia (care)	60
	Dementia and critical gerontological social work practice	65
	Conclusion	74
5	Older People and End-of-Life Care	76
	Introduction	76
	Where do older people die?	77
	Theoretical perspectives	80
	Widening understanding of end-of-life care	83
	End-of-life care and critical gerontological social work	92
	Conclusion	96
6	Transitions and Continuities	98
	Introduction	98
	Theorizing transition	99
	Widening our understanding of key transitions	104
	Transitions: the contribution of critical gerontological social work	112
	Conclusion	113
7	Care-giving in Diverse Contexts	115
	Introduction	115
	The context of care	116
	Widening our understanding of care	118
	Care and the contribution of critical gerontological social work	124
	Conclusion	128
8	Developing Critical Gerontological Practice: New Challenges	130
	Introduction	130
	Traumatic life events	131
	Depression and ageing	134
	Abuse and neglect	138
	Critical gerontological social work in practice	143
	Conclusion	149

9 Pushing the Boundaries	151
Introduction	151
The benefits and challenges of a social work role	152
Discussion	156
 Useful Website Addresses	 160
Bibliography	161
Glossary	181
Index	185