

Contents

Introduction	1
Pierre Auriel
Conceptual Analysis and Emergency Legislation	13
Carl Wellman
Part I Concepts and Justification of Emergency Legislations
Emergencies in Sober Hobbesianism	37
Tom Sorell
The State of Exception and the Terrorist Threat—An Obsolete Combination	61
François Saint-Bonnet
The Continued Exceptionalism of the American Response to Daesh	71
Kent Roach
Dignity, Emergency, Exception	101
Alon Harel and Assaf Sharon
Part II Risk and Failure of Emergency Legislations
Reconciling International Human Rights Law with Executive Non-trial-Based Counter-Terror Measures: The Case of UK Temporary Exclusion Orders	121
Helen M. Fenwick
Polish Martial Law on the Docket—Judging the Past and the Clash of Judicial Narratives	157
Jerzy Zajadło and Tomasz Tadeusz Koncewicz

Emergency as a State of Mind—The Case of Israel	185
Suzie Navot
The French Case or the Hidden Dangers of a Long-Term State of Emergency	213
Cécile Guérin-Bargues
“Anything Goes”: How Does French Law Deal with the State of Emergency?	229
Olivier Beaud
The German Reticence Vis-à-Vis the State of Emergency	241
Matthias Jestaedt	