

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements v
Table of Contents vii
List of Authors xv
List of Abbreviations xvii

C.H. van Rhee

INTRODUCTION 1

I. Cross-border Enforcement in Europe

D. Baghrizabehi

UNDERSTANDING CROSS-BORDER ENFORCEMENT AGAINST THE BACKDROP OF JUDICIAL FEDERALISM AND PROCEDURAL AUTONOMY: ANY USEFUL CUES FROM THE UNITED STATES? 9

1. Introduction 9

2. Judicial federalism in the US and the EU 11

2.1. Outline 11

2.2. The US federal judiciary 11

2.2.1. (Diversity) Jurisdiction of the federal judiciary 12

2.2.2. Applicable law under diversity jurisdiction 13

2.2.3. Differentiating substance and procedure 14

2.2.4. Federal review of State court decisions 16

2.3. The EU 'federal judiciary' and comparative outlook 16

3. Procedural autonomy and State court application of federal law 19

3.1. The US: Application of federal law in State courts 19

3.2. Procedural autonomy of Member States and a comparative outlook 20

3.2.1. The notion 20

3.2.2. Procedural autonomy and BIR 22

3.2.3.	Brief excursion: Is there a 'federal common law' in the EU?.....	23
4.	Full faith and credit clause – a reality for the EU?.....	26
4.1.	Interstate enforcement and the Full Faith and Credit Clause	26
4.2.	Full faith and credit in the EU: Are we there yet?	27
5.	Conclusion	30
	References	31

K. Drnovšek

ECONOMIC IMPLICATIONS OF THE ABOLITION OF EXEQUATUR UNDER BRUSSELS I

	RECAST.....	37
1.	Introduction	37
2.	Economic justification for the abolition of exequatur	39
3.	Criticism and doubts regarding the accuracy of statistical data.....	43
4.	Expectations and initial experience with BIR in the EU Member States	46
4.1.	Austria	48
4.2.	The Czech Republic	48
4.3.	Italy	49
4.4.	Lithuania	49
4.5.	Sweden	49
5.	Concluding remarks	50
	References	54

A. Giussani

GROUND FOR REFUSAL OF RECOGNITION OF FOREIGN JUDGMENTS: DEVELOPMENTS AND PERSPECTIVES IN EU MEMBER STATES REGARDING PUBLIC ORDER AND

	CONFLICTING DECISIONS	57
1.	Converging notions of procedural public order	57
2.	Development of notions of substantive public order	59
3.	Conflicting decisions.....	60
3.1.	Conflicts with local decisions	61
3.2.	Conflicts between local provisional remedies and EU judgments	63
3.3.	Conflicts between local appealable judgments and foreign res judicata	64
3.4.	Conflicts between local res judicata and foreign res judicata	65
3.5.	Conflicts between foreign non-EU decisions.....	67
3.6.	Conflicts between foreign EU decisions.....	67
3.7.	Conflicts between foreign EU and non-EU decisions	68

References	70
------------------	----

W.H. Rechberger

CROSS-BORDER ENFORCEMENT OF PUBLIC DOCUMENTS AND REGULATION (EU)

2016/1191	73
-----------------	----

1. The European public document	73
2. About recognition and enforcement of public documents	75
3. The 'acceptance' of foreign public documents	77
4. Conclusion	78

References	79
------------------	----

S. Kraljić

BRUSSELS II BIS AND ABOLITION OF EXEQUATUR: EXPERIENCES AND VISIONS

1. Introduction	81
2. From exequatur to the concept of the free movement of judgments	83
3. Brussels II bis: experiences and visions	90
3.1. Experiences	90
3.2. Visions	95
4. Final thoughts	98

References	100
------------------	-----

II. (Cross-border) Enforcement and the National Legal Context

W. Kennett

LEGAL TRANSPLANTS: JUDICIAL OFFICERS IN POLAND AND THE CZECH REPUBLIC

1. Introduction	107
1.1. The contested viability of transplants	107
1.2. The tasks of enforcement law	108
1.2.1. The issue of an enforcement title (titre exécutoire)	108
1.2.2. Authorisation for enforcement	109
1.2.3. Service of documents relating to enforcement	109
1.2.4. Creditor application for enforcement	109
1.2.5. Obtaining information about a debtor's assets	110
1.2.6. Choice of enforcement method	110
1.2.7. Planning of the enforcement method	111

Table of Contents

1.2.8.	Removal and sale of assets.....	111
1.2.9.	Division of assets or the realised value of assets.....	111
1.2.10.	Dealing with challenges to enforcement.....	112
2.	The Judicial Officer model.....	112
3.	Transplanting the model.....	113
3.1.	An identifiable structure.....	113
3.2.	Transplanting the model: the view from the UIHJ and CEPEJ.....	115
3.3.	Transplanting the model: a view from the Recipient States.....	117
3.3.1.	Introduction.....	117
3.3.2.	Poland.....	118
3.3.2.1.	Introduction.....	118
3.3.2.2.	The role of courts in the enforcement process.....	119
3.3.2.3.	Conception of Judicial Officers as public authorities.....	120
3.3.2.4.	Entrepreneurship and competition.....	121
3.3.2.5.	Regulation of fees.....	124
3.3.2.6.	Relationship with the government.....	125
3.3.3.	The Czech Republic.....	127
3.3.3.1.	Introduction.....	127
3.3.3.2.	The role of the courts in the enforcement process.....	129
3.3.3.3.	Entrepreneurship and competition.....	129
3.3.3.4.	Regulation of fees.....	130
3.3.3.5.	Relationship with the government.....	131
4.	Conclusions.....	132
4.1.	Reviewing the enforcement tasks.....	132
4.2.	Reviewing the surrounding legal culture.....	133
	References.....	135

J. Valdhans & T. Kyselovská

RECOGNITION AND ENFORCEMENT OF FOREIGN JUDGMENTS ACCORDING TO CZECH

LAW.....	139
1.	Introduction.....	139
2.	Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments.....	139
3.	Legal sources for recognition and enforcement in the Czech Republic.....	141
4.	Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments in the Czech Republic – theoretical remarks.....	143
4.1.	Recognition.....	143
4.2.	Enforcement.....	146

5.	The practical side of recognition and enforcement procedures in the Czech Republic	148
6.	Conclusion and critical remarks regarding the current legal framework in the Czech Republic	149
	References	151

F. Fernhout

	ENFORCING FOREIGN TITLES REGARDING MONETARY CLAIMS IN THE NETHERLANDS...	153
1.	General overview of enforcement of titles in the Netherlands	153
1.1.	Outline of the Dutch system	153
1.2.	Methods of enforcement	155
1.3.	Underlying principles.....	156
1.4.	Writs and the object of enforcement.....	158
1.5.	Enforceable titles	159
1.6.	Protective measures	160
1.7.	Competent courts	161
1.8.	Time limits in the CCP.....	163
2.	Enforceability of foreign titles	164
2.1.	Recognition and enforceability.....	164
2.2.	Foreign judgments in general.....	165
2.3.	Foreign judgments under an instrument other than BIR.....	165
2.4.	Arbitral awards	167
3.	Recognition and enforceability of titles falling under BIR	167
3.1.	Automatic recognition.....	168
3.2.	Certificate of Enforceability	168
3.3.	Protective measures	168
4.	Remedies regarding and during enforcement	169
4.1.	Influence of the debtor, third parties and other creditors on enforcement	169
4.2.	Objections to enforcement as such and in cases not covered by specific provisions.....	172
4.3.	Objections to enforcement under BIR.....	174
5.	Final remarks	178

T. Ivanc

THE INTERPLAY BETWEEN BRUSSELS I RECAST AND THE SLOVENIAN RULES ON REMEDIES UNDER THE NEW SYSTEM OF DIRECT ENFORCEMENT OF FOREIGN JUDICIAL DECISIONS.....		179
1.	Introduction	179
2.	Practical aspects concerning the relative positions of the creditor and debtor in the enforcement of foreign judgments	183
3.	Procedural aspects of the application for refusal of enforcement and the role of national law	186
3.1.	Slovenian case law regarding grounds for refusal	193
3.2.	Suspension of enforceability and limitation to protective measures as possible delays of the enforcement proceedings according to Brussels I Recast	195
4.	Conclusion	201
References		204

V. Rijavec & T. Keresteš

INTERNATIONAL MUTUAL LEGAL ASSISTANCE IN CIVIL MATTERS FROM A SLOVENIAN PERSPECTIVE		209
1.	Concept.....	209
2.	Subject and scope of international legal assistance.....	210
3.	Legal bases of international legal assistance.....	211
3.1.	General.....	211
3.2.	EU law	212
3.3.	International legal acts.....	212
3.4.	Legal assistance not based on international treaties or EU rules.....	212
4.	Jurisdiction to carry out international legal assistance	213
5.	The format and content of the requests.....	214
6.	Language restrictions	215
7.	Execution of the request	216
8.	Method of cooperation between courts.....	218
9.	Costs and free legal aid in cross-border disputes	218
10.	Cross-border service	219
11.	Cross-border acquisition of evidence	222
12.	Cross-border use of public documents.....	223

13.	Protection of personal data for cross-border use	224
14.	Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments	225
14.1.	Concept.....	225
14.2.	Legal sources.....	226
14.3.	Determination of foreign law	227
15.	Comparative outlook with the United States of America.....	227
16.	Conclusion	229
	References	230

T. Zoroska-Kamilovska

	CHALLENGES FACING MACEDONIAN LAWMAKERS IN THE FUTURE IMPLEMENTATION OF BRUSSELS I RECAST REGARDING ENFORCEMENT – AN ATTEMPT AT ASSESSMENT	233
1.	Introduction	233
2.	Enforcement of domestic and foreign court judgments and other enforceable instruments in Macedonia	234
3.	Cross-border enforcement in the European Union under BIR.....	239
4.	The implementation of BIR in Macedonian law	244
5.	Final remarks	250
	References	251