

Contents

1 Religion and Prison: An Introduction . . . . .	1
Julia Martínez-Ariño and Anne-Laure Zwilling
2 Austria: Management of Religious Diversity in Prisons . . . . .	11
Wolfram Reiss
3 Belgium: Religions and Prisons in Law . . . . .	37
Louis-Léon Christians and Stéphanie Wattier
4 Bulgaria: Religion in Prison . . . . .	51
Daniela Kalkandjieva
5 Croatia: Religion in Prison – Equal Access in a Predominantly Catholic Society . . . . .	63
Frane Staničić and Siniša Zrinščak
6 Czech Republic: Religious Assistance in Prisons in the Past and Today . . . . .	79
Záboj Horák
7 Czech Republic: Religion and Prison – The History of an Ambivalent Partnership . . . . .	91
Lukáš Dirga and Jan Váně
8 Denmark: Christianity and Islam in Prisons – A Case of Secular Professionalisation of Chaplaincy . . . . .	113
Henrik Reintoft Christensen, Lene Kühle, and Niels Valdemar Vinding
9 Estonia: Regulating Religion in Prisons Since the 1990s . . . . .	135
Ringo Ringvee
10 Finland: Re-evaluating the Social Role of Religion in Modern Society – Religion in Prisons . . . . .	149
Sami Puumala

11	France: Worship in Prison – Legal Framework and Religious Experience . . . . .	171
	Vincente Fortier
12	France: Islam, a Central Topic of the Research Field Dedicated to Prisons and Religion – A Review of the Literature . . . . .	185
	Céline Béraud
13	Germany: Inequality in Legal Practice – Managing Religion in Prisons . . . . .	193
	Sarah J. Jahn
14	Italy: Tested by New Religious Diversity – Religion in the Prison System . . . . .	219
	Francesco Alicino
15	Latvia: The Position of Religion in the Penitentiary Institutions . . . . .	237
	Anita Stasulane
16	Montenegro: Religion in Prisons . . . . .	257
	Nikola B. Šaranović
17	The Netherlands: Oligopoly Dynamics in the Penitentiary System . . . . .	269
	Kees de Groot and Sipco Vellenga
18	Norway: Religion in the Prison System . . . . .	285
	Helge Årsheim
19	Poland: Religious Assistance and Religious Practices in the Prisons . . . . .	299
	Michał Zawisłak, Michał Czelný, and Aneta Abramowicz
20	Romania: Physical Captivity and Spiritual Freedom – Historical, Sociological and Legal Aspects of Religion in the Prison System . . . . .	317
	Gabriel Bîrsan
21	Spain: Religion in Prisons – Socio-Legal Perspectives . . . . .	339
	Julia Martínez-Ariño
22	Sweden: Silent Religious Retreat as Rehabilitation Treatment in Prison . . . . .	359
	Per Pettersson
23	Switzerland: Religions and Spirituality in Prison – Institutional Analysis . . . . .	373
	Aude Zurbuchen, Anaïd Lindemann, and Irene Becci

- 24 Turkey: Religious Assistance in Prisons – State Monopoly of Religious Service . . . . . 391
Ahmet Erdi Öztürk and İřtar Gözaydın
- 25 United Kingdom: The Public Reconstruction of Religion and Belief in Prisons – Negotiating Diversity, Rights and Constraints . . . . . 401
Andrew J. Todd
- 26 Russia: A Short Word on Religion in Prisons . . . . . 421
Mikhaïl Chakhov