

Table of contents

vii	Preface by Professor Paul Hills
ix	Introductory essay: " Relativity and restoration " by Helen Glanville xxvi	Notes from the translator
xxviii	Acknowledgements
	Chapter 1
1	Towards restoration
	1. Some notes on its ancient origins
	2. Gothic polyptychs, and frames "in the Antique style"
	3. Adaptations and renovations at the turn of the sixteenth century
	4. The restoration of frescos
	Chapter 2
31	Conservation of works of art in the sixteenth century
	1. The restoration of ancient statues
	2. Giorgio Vasari: works of art and the passage of time
	3. Events involving works of art in the sixteenth century
	4. Catholic reform and the Counter-Reformation
	Chapter 3
65	Some local traditions in Italy
	1. Bologna and Carlo Cesare Malvasia, Naples and Bernardo De Dominici
	2. Florence and Rome
	3. Venice
	Chapter 4
99	Gallery pictures
	1. Reductions in size and enlargements
	2. "Time the Painter"
	3. The restoration of Antique sculpture
	4. Pictorial restorations: Carlo Maratta
	5. Controversies over Carlo Maratta
	Chapter 5
138	Eighteenth-century restorations in Italy and France
	1. The origins of the transfer of frescos
	2. The earliest transfers from panel
	3. Polemics surrounding Robert Picault
	4. The "tableaux du roy"
	5. Experiments in the physics and chemistry of painting
	6. A century of varnish
	Chapter 6
181	Venice and Pietro Edwards
	1. The "public paintings"
	2. The direction of Pietro Edwards
	3. The laboratory at Santi Giovanni e Paolo
	4. Considerations on the restoration of paintings
	5. Restorations after 1786
	Chapter 7
221	From the eighteenth to the nineteenth century
	1. The legacy of the eighteenth century
	2. Antique statues and panel paintings by the Early Masters
	3. Revolutionary vandalism

	4. Restorations in the Musée Central des Arts	382	Final essay: "A serene vision of the relationship between material and image" by Massimo Ferretti
	5. Napoleonic requisitioning
	6. The world of the "estrattisti"	392	Bibliography
	Chapter 8	399	Index of names
269	Restoration: from the Academies to Romanticism	409	Index of place names and works
	1. Restoration and the Papacy	418	Glossary of technical terms
	2. Romantic restoration		1. Terminology used to describe the materials and techniques of paintings
	3. Restorations in Tuscany: from academy to purism		Wall paintings (frescos)
	4. Aesthetic restoration: Molteni and Secco-Suardo		Easel paintings
	5. Ulisse Forni, Gaetano Bianchi and restoration in Florence		Paint
	Chapter 9		Pigments
323	Restoration in Italy after the Unification		Medium or binder
	1. Frescos and polychromy		Perception and optical effects
	2. Giovanni Battista Cavalcaselle and restoration as conservation		2. Deterioration, conservation and restoration terminology
	3. Guglielmo Botti and Cavalcaselle's restorers		Deterioration and ageing
	4. Science and restoration: experiments with the Pettenkofer method		3. Structural conservation: wall and easel paintings
	5. Mosaics and polychromy in monuments of the Middle Ages		Transfer
	6. The years of Adolfo Venturi and Luigi Cantalamessa		Retouching
	7. Luigi Cavenaghi		Retouching materials
			Restoration