

■ IN BRIEF	4	A new S&P 500 high ● Sumner Redstone dies at 97
■ OPINION	5	Joe Biden made a smart VP pick with Kamala Harris
■ AGENDA	5	A virtual Democratic convention ● Alibaba's Q1 earnings
■ REMARKS	6	Only you can prevent QAnon from going mainstream
1 BUSINESS	10	Chevron bets that sticking with oil won't make it a dinosaur
	12	Airports fight to stay aloft until travelers return
	15	Legal experts assess Round 1 of Congress vs. Big Tech
2 TECHNOLOGY	16	Is Microsoft ready to be TikTok famous?
	18	Global investors rush to buy into India's huge tech market
3 FINANCE	20	The streaming boom makes studio lots a real estate star
	23	With mergers scarce, dealmakers scare up other work
4 ECONOMICS	24	The wreckage in Lebanon dates to long before the blast
	26	▼ College towns get a lift from stranded foreign students

5 POLITICS	28	U.S. cities face a post-pandemic future of rising inequality
	30	A Bernie Democrat could flip a red Texas district
	31	Chipping away at social media's online speech shield
+ SOLUTIONS / SMALL BUSINESS	32	How a U.S. company locks out Chinese counterfeiters
	34	Rethinking mass tourism in its Spanish birthplace
	35	Connecting Indian laborers with jobs in distant cities

The Path to a Vaccine: Where We Are, What Comes Next

38

The toughest challenges, most promising solutions, and weirdest science

40

Many coronavirus vaccine projects are taking unorthodox routes

42

Moderna and Germany's BioNTech are racing to reinvent vaccination

46

Serum Institute of India may be the world's best hope to produce enough doses

52

Reckoning with Big Pharma's intellectual-property rights

54

Vaccine nationalism makes a deadly disease even worse

60

Without essentials such as vials and syringes, a vaccine is just a formula

64

Fighting anti-vaxxer pseudoscience one viral video at a time

68

Bill Gates on how this all ends