

Contents

About the authors	vii
Foreword	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
Glossary	xiii
List of abbreviations	xv
List of figures, tables and boxes	xvii
Part one: The changing context of capital investment	1
Chapter 1 Introduction: hospitals within a changing context Bernd Rechel, Stephen Wright, Nigel Edwards, Barrie Dowdeswell, Martin McKee	3
Chapter 2 New models of long-term care and implications for service redesign Pieter Degeling, Jonathan Erskine	27
Part two: Influencing capital investment	45
Chapter 3 Planning health care capacity: whose responsibility? Stefanie Ettelt, Martin McKee, Ellen Nolte, Nicholas Mays, Sarah Thomson	47
Chapter 4 Concept planning: getting capital investment right Knut Samset, Barrie Dowdeswell	67
Chapter 5 Capital investment and the health care workforce Bernd Rechel, James Buchan, Martin McKee	85

Part three: Economic aspects of capital investment	101
Chapter 6 Market competition in European hospital care Hans Maarse, Charles Normand	103
Chapter 7 Capital financing models, procurement strategies and decision-making Geert Dewulf, Stephen Wright	123
Chapter 8 Life-cycle economics: cost, functionality and adaptability Svein Bjørberg, Marinus Verweij	145
Chapter 9 Facility management of hospitals Kunibert Lennerts	167
Chapter 10 The economic and community impact of health capital investment Jonathan Watson, Simona Agger	187
Part four: Design issues	205
Chapter 11 Translating hospital services into capital asset solutions Bernd Rechel, Stephen Wright, Martin McKee	207
Chapter 12 Sustainable design for health Rosemary Glanville, Phil Nedin	229
Part five: Conclusions	247
Chapter 13 Conclusions and critical success factors Bernd Rechel, Stephen Wright, Nigel Edwards, Barrie Dowdeswell, Martin McKee	249
Index	265