
Contents

PART ONE

Setting the Context: The Environment of Professional Life	3
---	---

CHAPTER 1. VALUES AND THE PRIMACY OF RESPECT	5
Chapter Objectives	5
Societal Values	7
Professional Values.....	11
Becoming a Professional.....	11
Traditional Professional Values	12
Evolving Ideas about Professions	13
Personal Values	14
The "Good Life" of the Individual	18
Harmony with Society	18
Conflict with Society.....	20
Conflict with Health Professionals.....	22
Discovering a Meaningful Value System.....	23
Values Clarification for Patients.....	24
Discovering and Reclaiming Values	24
References	26

CHAPTER 2. THE ENVIRONMENT OF HEALTH CARE INSTITUTIONS	29
Chapter Objectives	29
The Functional Organization of Health Care	30
Health Care: Institutional Dimensions	32
Private- and Public-Sector Expectations.....	33
Total and Partial Institutions	33

Laws, Policies, and Health Care Institutions	35
Laws and Policies Maintaining High Standards of Competence.....	36
Laws and Policies Related to Discrimination.....	36
Other Laws and Policies	38
Laws, Policies, and Change	39
Rights, Responsibilities, and Institutional Life	40
A Patient's Bill of Rights	41
Informed Consent: The Basic Contract Guiding Interaction	43
Disclosure of Relevant Information.....	44
Giving or Refusing Consent	45
References	46
CHAPTER 3. THE SOCIETY IN WHICH PROFESSIONALS WORK.....	49
Chapter Objectives	49
Appreciating Differences.....	51
Culture and Ethnicity	52
Culture Sensitive Care.....	55
Socioeconomic Status.....	55
Religion.....	56
Place of Residence.....	57
Age and Ageism	59
Sexual Preference	61
Personal Biases.....	62
Discrimination and Opportunity.....	63
References	64
Questions for Thought and Discussion.....	65
PART TWO
Focus: The Health Professional	67
CHAPTER 4. STUDENT	69
Chapter Objectives	69
Desire to Help.....	69
Becoming an Expert.....	70
Knowledge (Theoretical Concepts).....	71
Skills	72
Attitudes.....	74
On-Site Education: New Challenges.....	75
Problem Solving and Critical Thinking: Essential Tools	77
Ambiguity and Meaning in the Student Role	79

Anxiety and Student Life	79
Responding Constructively to Anxiety	80
The Rewards of Perseverance	81
References	82
CHAPTER 5. CLINICIAN	83
Chapter Objectives	83
The Capacity to Help	84
Social Relationships.....	84
Therapeutic Relationships	86
Being an Expert Helper	90
Newer Dimensions of the Clinician's Role.....	91
Working with Assistants	91
Referring Patients.....	92
Teams and Teamwork	93
Lifelong Learning Habits.....	94
Summary.....	96
References	96
CHAPTER 6. PERSONAL LIFE AS A PROFESSIONAL	97
Chapter Objectives	97
Values and Well-Being	97
Taking Care of Yourself	98
Illusion of Invulnerability	98
Styles of Approaching Professional Tasks	99
Solace of Solitude.....	103
Taking Care of Each Other.....	106
Support Groups.....	107
Play and Enjoy Each Other's Company.....	108
Reprise: Maintaining a Meaningful Value System.....	110
References	110
Questions for Thought and Discussion.....	111
PART THREE
Focus: The Patient	115
CHAPTER 7. CHALLENGES TO PATIENTS	117
Chapter Objectives	117
Maintaining Wellness.....	118
Reckoning with Losses.....	119
Loss of Former Self-Image	120
Losses Associated with Institutions—Home and Privacy	123

Loss of Independence.....	128
Special Challenges of the Outpatient.....	129
Special Challenges of the Home Care Patient.....	131
Interaction with the Health Professionals.....	132
References.....	135
CHAPTER 8. PRIVILEGES OF PATIENTS.....	136
Chapter Objectives.....	136
Rights and Privileges.....	137
Privileges Given to the Patient: A Temporary Respite.....	138
Some Advantages of Remaining in the Patient Role.....	140
Escape.....	140
Financial Gain.....	140
Social Gain.....	141
Respectful Responses to Malingering.....	142
References.....	144
CHAPTER 9. PERSONAL LIFE OF THE PATIENT.....	145
Chapter Objectives.....	145
The Fragility of Relationships.....	146
Lack of Sustained Interest.....	147
Winds of Change.....	148
Uncertainty about the Future.....	149
Stigma and Support Systems.....	150
Reprise: Discovering a Meaningful New Value System.....	152
Discovering and Reclaiming Values.....	152
Values, Needs, and the Cost of Health Care.....	154
References.....	156
Questions for Thought and Discussion.....	157
PART FOUR
Focus: Interaction Between Health Professional and Patient Communications.....	159
CHAPTER 10. VERBAL COMMUNICATION.....	161
Chapter Objectives.....	161
Talking Together: A Bridge to Relationship.....	162
Determinants of Successful Verbal Communication.....	163
Presentation of Material.....	163
Attitudes.....	169
Tone and Volume.....	174
Effective Listening.....	176

Group Process	180
Structured Communication	181
Written Communication	182
Interviews	182
References	183
CHAPTER 11. NONVERBAL COMMUNICATION	185
Chapter Objectives	185
Pantomime and Demonstration	186
Pantomime	186
Demonstration	188
Metacommunication	189
Facial Expression	190
Physical Appearance	192
Touch	194
Differing Concepts of Distance Awareness	195
Differing Concepts of Time Awareness	198
Appreciating Differences	201
References	201
Questions for Thought and Discussion	202
PART FIVE
The Health Professional and Patient
Relationship	205
CHAPTER 12. THE PROCESS OF ESTABLISHING
RELATEDNESS	207
Chapter Objectives	207
Enter, The Patient and Patient's Support System	208
Enter, The Health Professionals	211
Models of Relationship	213
Trust, Trustworthiness, and Relatedness	215
Trust and Confidentiality	216
From Casualness to Caring	217
Dimensions of Caring	220
Dependence and Empowerment	222
Types of Dependence	223
Patient Empowerment	226
Contracts and Covenants	227
References	228
CHAPTER 13. THE IMPORTANCE OF RECOGNIZING
BOUNDARIES	230
Chapter Objectives	230

Professional Boundaries Examined	231
Personal Warmth Vs. Professional Qualities?	231
Integrating Professional and Personal Qualities	234
Meaningful Distances.....	232
Physical Boundaries	235
Sexual Contact During and Beyond the Professional Relationship	239
How to Maintain Boundaries Constructively.....	246
References	249
CHAPTER 14. THE CHALLENGE OF CREATING PROFESSIONAL CLOSENESS	250
Chapter Objectives	250
Words, Actions, and Virtues	251
Attention to the Context.....	255
Time Management in the Workplace	255
Little Things Mean a Lot	257
Self-Revelation and Enhancing Closeness.....	259
Professional Closeness and Respectful Interaction	261
References	262
Questions for Thought and Discussion.....	262
PART SIX
Respectful Interaction: Working with Patients Effectively	267
CHAPTER 15. RESPECTFUL INTERACTION: WORKING WITH NEWBORNS, INFANTS, AND TODDLERS	269
Chapter Objectives	269
Child Development and Family	271
Families—An Evolving Concept	271
Useful Principles of Child Growth and Development.....	277
Theories of Child Development.....	278
The Neonate.....	280
The Normal Newborn	280
Life-Threatening Circumstances	280
The Infant	281
Everyday Needs of Infants.....	283
The Toddler	285
Needs: Respect, Autonomy, and Approval	285
References	286

CHAPTER 16. RESPECTFUL INTERACTION: WORKING WITH THE CHILD AND ADOLESCENT	288
Chapter Objectives	288
The Childhood Self	289
Needs: Respect and Relating	289
Play and Toys	290
School Issues	291
Family—A Bridge to Respectful Interaction	292
The Adolescent Self	294
Early and Late Adolescence	295
Needs: Respect, Autonomy, and Relating	296
Family and Peers—Bridges to Respectful Interaction	297
Summary	297
References	298
 CHAPTER 17. RESPECTFUL INTERACTION: WORKING WITH THE MIDDLE-YEARS ADULT	 299
Chapter Objectives	299
The Adult	300
Needs: Respect, Identity, and Intimacy	300
Psychosocial Development and Needs	302
Social Roles	304
Meaning of Work	307
Stresses and Challenges of Midlife	310
Boredom	316
Doubt at the Crossroads	318
Working with the Patient of Middle Years	320
References	322
 CHAPTER 18. RESPECTFUL INTERACTION: WORKING WITH THE OLDER ADULT	 324
Chapter Objectives	324
The Older Adult	325
Needs: Respect and Integrity	326
Friendship and Family Ties	326
Where “Home” Is	330
The Challenge of Changes of Aging	330
Challenge to Former Self-Image	331
Physical Changes	333
Mental Changes	335

Interacting with the Cognitively Impaired Older Patient	336
Assessing the Patient's Value System	339
References	341
Questions for Thought and Discussion	342
PART SEVEN
Respectful Interaction: Working with Patients Who Present Special Challenges.....	345
CHAPTER 19. RESPECTFUL INTERACTION IN CHALLENGING SITUATIONS	347
Chapter Objectives	347
Dying and Death in Modern Society.....	348
The Dying-Death Relationship	349
Dying: Denial and Beyond Denial	352
Responses Associated with Dying and Death	354
Fears of Dying.....	355
Fear of Death Itself	357
Other Responses	359
Responses of the Patient's Family.....	360
Setting Treatment Priorities	362
Information Sharing	363
The What and How of Telling.....	364
Treating Losses and Fears	366
Maintaining Hope	368
The Hospice Alternative	369
When Death is Imminent	370
Maximizing Comfort	370
Saying Good-Bye	371
Accepting Rejection.....	372
Summary	373
References	373
CHAPTER 20. RESPECTFUL INTERACTION IN OTHER DIFFICULT SITUATIONS.....	375
Chapter Objectives	375
Sources of Difficulties in the Health Professional and Patient Interaction	376
Sources of Difficulties Within the Health Professional.....	376
Sources of Difficulties Within Patients	380
Sources of Difficulties in the Environment.....	380

The "Difficult Patient"	385
The Disruptive Patient.....	385
The Self-Destructive Patient.....	386
Showing Respect in Difficult Situations	388
References	390
Questions for Thought and Discussion.....	391
EPILOGUE.....	393
INDEX	401

Health Professional and Patient
INTERACTION
5th Edition