

Table of Contents

Preface — 5

01 New Currents of Traditional Music in Korea — 10

- Hwang Byungki
- Chung Chae Kook
- Kang Kwon Soon
- Kim Dong-won
- Kim Sang-hun
- Lee Jaram
- Bulsechul Ensemble
- Post-Hwang Byungki

02 Musical Dramas, the Beautiful Goal of Gugak in the 21st Century — 32

- Musical Dramas
- Theatrical Musicals
- Traditional Korean Opera
- Toward an Era of Gugak Theater

03 New Gugak Festivals for the 21st Century — 58

- Yeowoorak Festival
- Creative Sori (Pansori) Contest

04 Composers Who Have Contributed to the Development of Korean Music — 68

- Homo Ludens, Lee Haesik
- Homo Academicus, Kang Junil
- Homo Dramaticus, Kim Youngdong

05 Transformation of Traditional Korean Instruments in the 21st Century	82
• Geomungo
• Haegeum
• New Trends in Instruments in the 21st Century
06 Globalization of Korean Music: Sparkling Cultural Consensus in Asia	107
• Current Exchanges of Traditional Culture between Korea, China, and Japan
• Best Examples of Traditional Arts Exchanges
07 Creating New Korean Music Content Based on a Blend of Warmth and Fusion	124
• Underlying Power of Hallyu : Warmth and Fusion
• Korean Music in the 2000s: Results and Evolution
08 The Present and Future of 21st-century Traditional Korean Music	138
• Seeking Balanced Development among Song, Dance, Performance, and Play
• System, Style, and Story: Major Elements of Korean Music and its Composition Principles
• Gugak as Consumer Goods
• Gugak as Music of Daily Life
• Countless Potential Stars in the Field of Gugak
• Developing Cultural Products Targeting the Asian Market
• Gugak Entertainment Agency Going Public on the KOSDAQ
• Festivals Expanding the Domain of Gugak in the 2000s
09 Epilogue	164
Notes	166