

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Abbreviations and Symbols	xiii
Part I: Aims and Evidence	1
1 Welcome to Dictionopolis! The human word-store	3
2 Links in the Chain Assessing the evidence	18
3 Programming Dumbella Modeling the mental lexicon	32
4 Brainy Matters The physical underlay	42
Part II: Basic Ingredients	51
5 Slippery Customers Attempts to pin down the meaning of words	53
6 Bad Birds and Better Birds Prototype theories	66
7 Whispering Chambers of the Imagination Mental models	80
8 The Primordial Atomic Globule Hunt The search for semantic primitives	90
9 Word-webs Semantic networks	99

10	Close Companions Words which cling together	113
11	Lexical All-sorts Parts of speech	119
12	Verb Power The role of verbs	131
13	Bits of Words The internal architecture of words	145
14	Taking Care of the Sounds Dealing with the sound patterns	157
	Part III: Newcomers	169
15	Multiple Meanings The polysemy problem	171
16	Interpreting Ice-cream Cones Metaphor and metonymy	182
17	Globbering Mattresses Creating new words	194
18	What is a Bongaloo, Daddy? How children learn the meaning of words	209
19	Aggergog Miggers, Wips and Gucks How children cope with the sounds of words	222
	Part IV: The Overall Picture	235
20	Seeking and Finding Selecting words	237
21	Organized Guesswork Recognizing words	248
22	Odd Arrangements and Funny Solutions The organization of the mental lexicon	261
23	Last Word Final comments and future questions	267
	Notes	270
	References	292
	Index	327