

Contents

List of Illustrations	viii
Abbreviations	x
Acknowledgements	xi
Prologue	xiii
Chapter 1 Separation and Fusion	1
Crossroad of peoples	1
Europeans	8
Colonies and classifications	14
Racism and mestisation	21
Chapter 2 The Baggage of Colonialism	26
Christian discipline	26
Marriage and citizenship	33
Mixtures in Ceylon	38
Javanese circuit	42
Slave children	46
Asian Burghers	51
Career in the Dutch East Indies	54
Demarcation lines	59
Chapter 3 Contraction	66
The shrinking world of the Indies	66
Malaccan diaspora	72
Citizens of Ceylon	76
New masters, old patterns	83
In the service of England	89
Landed gentry and powerful merchants	94

Chapter 4	Lordly Traditions and Plantation Industrialism	104
	The Principalities	106
	Two contrasting worlds: Surakarta and Yogyakarta	112
	The economic cycle of Central Java	119
	Landholders in the Sunda	124
	Dissolving views	128
	Ups and downs of life in the Principalities	134
	The noble landlord	137
Chapter 5	Mixed Worlds in the Eastern Archipelago	143
	Makassar	144
	Wide is the sea and Banda small	150
	Variations of mestisation	159
	Ternate: economic stagnation and social mobility	161
	Ambon: citizens, civil servants and migrants	166
	Soldiers and teachers	173
	Civil servants of Makassar	176
Chapter 6	Rank and Status	184
	Newcomers	184
	Competition	188
	Anxious fathers and voices of rancour	194
	A distinctly "Indische" voice	201
	Schooling	206
	Opportunities	211
	Race and status in the world of the East Indies	215
Chapter 7	The Underclass	219
	Upstairs, downstairs	219
	Civic registry	223
	The discovery of pauperism	228
	Living on charity	236
	Life in the barracks	244
	Propagating the artisan	250
Chapter 8	Crisis and Change in the Indische World	258
	Family firms in an age of economic consolidation	262
	Aftermath of the agricultural crisis	266
	Survival strategies	269
	Cris de coeur of early nationalism	276

23.	Map of	Recognition for Jong Indië	280
24.	The ca	Two newspapers: De Oosterling and De Telefoon	284
Chapter 9 “Indische”: Defined and Identified			293
26.	The M	Indische grievances and the prejudices of the motherland	297
27.	A soiree	The Indische Bond, the union for Indo-Europeans	305
28.	Johannes	The Indo-pauper revisited	309
29.	ca. 1905	Discrimination and education	313
30.	The	The Indische Party	320
31.	Europeans and their slaves in	The Dutch East Indies: old and new	328
32.	Children in the palace of	A fork in the road	334
33.	The Resident's office in
34.	The “Portuguese” church in
35.	A “Portuguese” woman and two	Epilogue: End of an Old World	339
36.	Ceylon, 1785	Glossary	344
37.	A tea visit in	Notes	348
38.	Slave market in Batavia, mid-19th century	Bibliography	392
39.	Portrait of Pieter Philip Johan	Index	421
40.	in lochs gained
41.	Houses in Colombo Fort, 1888
42.	Portrait of
43.	The entrance of
44.	Portrait of
45.	A general
46.	Portrait of
47.	Portrait of
48.	Portrait of
49.	Portrait of
50.	Portrait of
51.	Portrait of
52.	Portrait of
53.	Portrait of
54.	Portrait of
55.	Portrait of
56.	Portrait of
57.	Portrait of
58.	Portrait of
59.	Portrait of
60.	Portrait of
61.	Portrait of
62.	Portrait of
63.	Portrait of
64.	Portrait of
65.	Portrait of
66.	Portrait of
67.	Portrait of
68.	Portrait of
69.	Portrait of
70.	Portrait of
71.	Portrait of
72.	Portrait of
73.	Portrait of
74.	Portrait of
75.	Portrait of
76.	Portrait of
77.	Portrait of
78.	Portrait of
79.	Portrait of
80.	Portrait of
81.	Portrait of
82.	Portrait of
83.	Portrait of
84.	Portrait of
85.	Portrait of
86.	Portrait of
87.	Portrait of
88.	Portrait of
89.	Portrait of
90.	Portrait of
91.	Portrait of
92.	Portrait of
93.	Portrait of
94.	Portrait of
95.	Portrait of
96.	Portrait of
97.	Portrait of
98.	Portrait of
99.	Portrait of
100.	Portrait of		