

Cover Story

A look at how floating PV systems can help unlock the solar potential of Europe's bodies of water

5 World News

Hydropower associations team up to set COVID-19 recovery pathway; NSW Government OK's Snowy 2.0

10 Spotlight

Industry members from across the globe share how they are working during the COVID-19 Pandemic

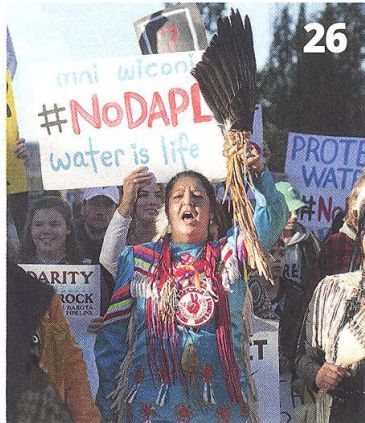

46
Classified

50
Contacts

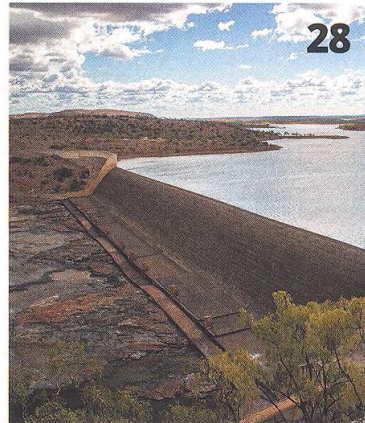

features

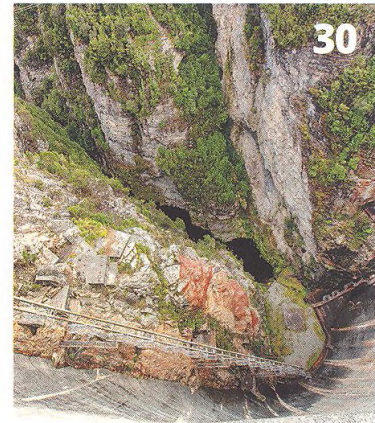

22

26

28

30

32

North America

16 Strengthening international collaboration

The European Marine Energy Centre has lent its expertise to the US energy industry

18 Successful job at Oroville

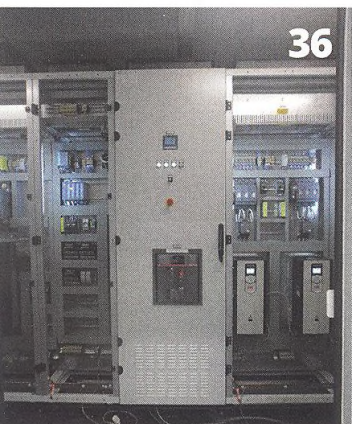

Report from the webinar looking at the Oroville Dam Spillway Emergency Recovery Project

22 The cold hard facts

The Spencer Dam Independent Investigation Panel has released its report on the dam failure

26 A step in the right direction

Looking at key steps towards reinvigorating federal leadership in water management

36

The Liberal National Party in Australia plans to build Queensland's biggest-ever drought-busting infrastructure project if elected this year

30 Battery for the future

New analysis from Hydro Tasmania examines the role of pumped storage

32 Hydro technology development

Analysis of recent innovation in hydropower technology development.

Case Study

34 Innovative cavitation monitoring

Voith and Icelandic energy group Landsvirkjun have embarked on a joint pilot project

36 Monitoring a material handling plant

Monitoring the energy and the production efficiency of a crushing and handling plant used during dam construction

38 Reservoir renovations

Making use of Paschal formwork and supporting jacks

40 Expanding the reach of ROV's

ROV with expanded reach gets put to use in Panama

Renewables Integration

41 Can hydro help ease the historic energy shock?

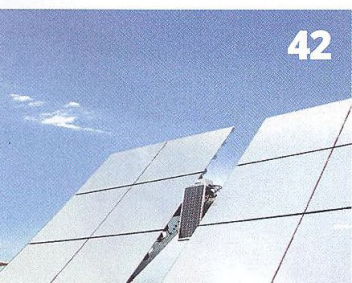

The important role hydro can play in renewable integration.

42 Combining the economics of hydropower with the flexibility of batteries

Harnessing the water used to cool heavy-duty solar modules

44 Floating on sunshine

The use of floating PV systems is unlocking the solar potential of Europe's bodies of water. Solar Power Europe gives more details.

42

Development opportunities

28 The economic X-factor