

Cover Story

Statkraft is implementing and operating the Devoll Hydropower Project, comprised of Banja and Moglice plants, in Albania.

5 World News

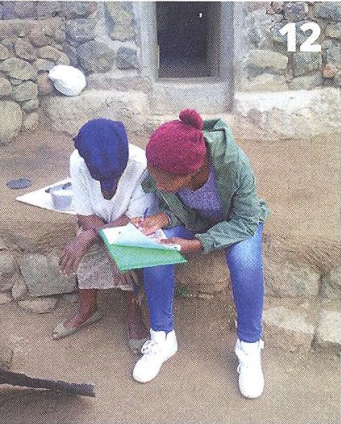

Report suggests increasing pumped storage could cut electric costs and carbon emissions; Neelum Jhelum hits milestone in power generation

12 Spotlight

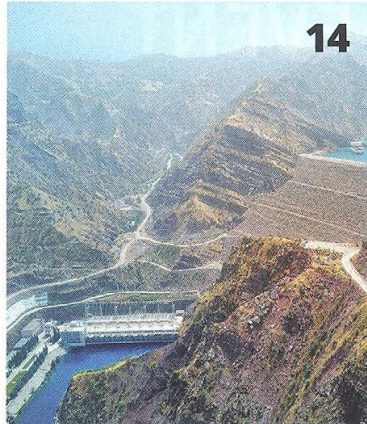

The XFLEX HYDRO project will showcase how hydropower can flexibly support the increased use of wind and solar power

46
Classified
50
Contacts

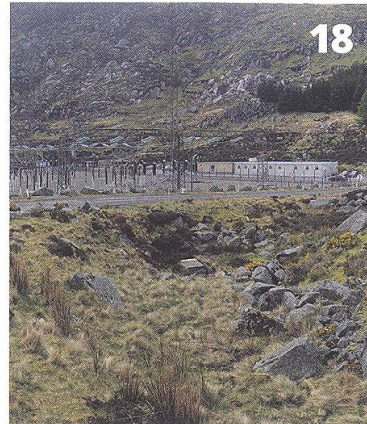

features

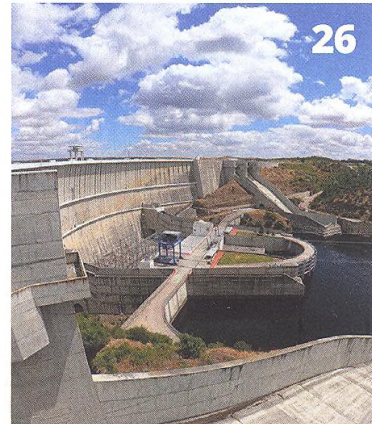

12

14

18

26

34

People

10
People on the move
Recent industry appointments

Refurbishment

14
Out with the old
Developments in Canada, India, Norway and Tajikistan

Pumped storage

18
World first for digital twin
Development of a digital twin for Irish pumped storage plant

20
Pumping up potential
Developments in New Zealand

Europe

22
Pumped storage development in Europe
A look how current projects are progressing across the region

26
European insight
Recent developments in the hydropower sector in Europe

28
Virtual planning - faster implementation
Streamlined formwork in the Gelbe Haide reservoir, Austria

30
Albanian ambition
Statkraft's work on the Moglicë hydropower project in Albania

Cyber security

32
Future-proof industrial security
Explaining the benefits of deploying Unidirectional Security Gateways in hydro networks

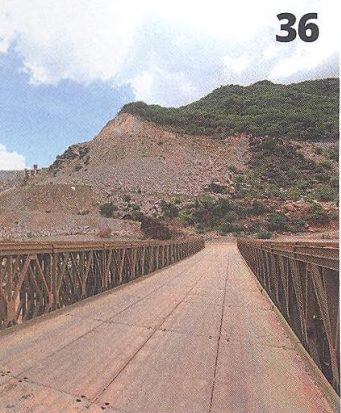

34
Under attack
With more frequent attacks, increasingly varied threats, and more sophisticated malware and tools, cyber security is becoming a greater consideration at critical infrastructure like dams

New Developments

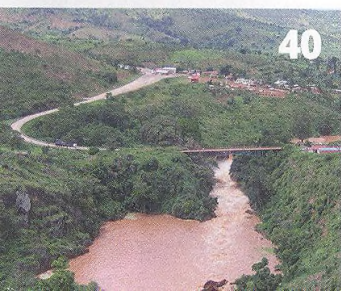

36
Spotlight on Genale Dawa III
Stantec has been involved with the Genale Dawa III hydropower project in Ethiopia, a project which is set to increase overall power capacity in the country by almost six percent, helping towards the government's ambitious goal to nearly double its nationwide electricity capacity by 2025

40
Complexity of project implementation
Research looks at why widespread resurrection of dam projects has not entailed an equal boom in dam construction in Africa

42
Working on wave & tidal power
Wave and tidal power developments have been moving forward globally, in spite of the ongoing pandemic. We put the spotlight on the latest developments in the sector

36

40