

■ IN BRIEF	6	Google's in court ● Purdue avoids it ● A voting stampede
■ OPINION	7	Trump's visa reforms will hurt American workers
■ AGENDA	7	A turbulent year at the ECB ● U.S. and German GDP
■ REMARKS	8	The myth of Britain's famous common sense
1 BUSINESS	12	ADM cooks up veggie burgers and gluten-free pizza
	14	Female pilots are rare—and getting rarer in the pandemic
2 TECHNOLOGY	16	Who needs Disney World when Baby Yoda is on your TV?
	17	The robot flotilla mapping the ocean floor
	20	Personal shoppers are coming to your laptop
3 FINANCE	22	Robinhood pitched itself as an entertaining way to invest, but Wall Street demands more than fun and games
4 ECONOMICS	28	A by-the-numbers look at the U.S. recovery
	30	"America First" didn't pan out for International Automotive
5 POLITICS	32	A major Chinese spying plot, or minor visa violations?
	34	When not going to school means not getting lunch
+ SOLUTIONS / BLACK BUSINESSES	36	The world of knitting gets more diverse
	39	▼ Black-owned bookstores have never been busier

	40	How to keep #BuyBlack going through the holidays
	41	Issa Rae is on a mission to elevate artists of color
■ PURSUITS	59	Building your own audio paradise
	62	The pressing needs of the vinyl renaissance
	63	This year's opera: Die Meistersinger von Streaming
	64	High-def Wi-Fi is here
	66	One souvenir that won't collect dust: A song
	67	This short-throw projector really brings the noise
■ LAST THING	68	Apple v. patent trolls

FEATURES

42

The Future of MAGA TV

At One America News Network, they're fed up with those lefties at Fox

46

Southwest Detroit Was Already Sick

An industrial corner of the city may have been especially vulnerable to Covid

52

Danger in the Classroom

America's teachers don't want to be part of our coronavirus experiment