

■ IN BRIEF	7	Justice Barrett ● Stocks swoon ● Rubik's redux
■ OPINION	8	The U.S. ought to join the global push against Covid
■ AGENDA	8	A new WTO leader ● Fed rates ● Buffett's busy quarter
■ REMARKS	10	China's resurgence was millenniums in the making
1 BUSINESS	14	Antibody treatments: The great Eli Lilly-Regeneron race
	16	Some of the best social influencers around are fictional
2 TECHNOLOGY	18	A California ballot measure will have a lot to say about whether the gig economy is here to stay
3 FINANCE	22	The risks of letting private equity gobble up health care
	25	Funds can bet on the election. The question is why
4 ECONOMICS	26	Biden may get the weak dollar Trump yearned for
	27	GDP isn't the barometer it used to be. What replaces it?
	28	▼ This is a Black-owned pot business. There aren't many

5 POLITICS	30	Indian-Americans are inching to the right
	32	Bolivia's boom is over, and the socialists are back
	35	U.S. voter turnout is shattering records
+ SOLUTIONS/ INNOVATION	37	Keeping fresh fruit fresh for twice as long
	39	Quantum computing that's slower but more accurate
	40	India's way to occupy kids at home: Teach them coding
■ PURSUITS	59	Temperatures are dropping, but you needn't hide indoors
	62	A toasty fire looks better with a newfangled blanket by it
	63	Even solitaire's livelier with Jackson Robinson's wild cards
	64	The latest Land Rover has a lot of Silicon Valley in it
	65	DemerBox's speaker of the house party
	66	Hot toddies to soothe the throat and warm the bones
	67	S'more ways to make s'mores
■ LAST THING	68	Can Bombardier ever shake the dust off its wings?

FEATURES

42

Faster, Faster!

Operation Warp Speed guns the engine to deliver a vaccine in record time

48

K-Political

How K-pop superfans managed to beat QAnon at its own game

54

Rad Power to the People

The Seattle e-bike startup will have to pedal furiously to maintain its early lead