

Contents

I. Origins
1. Historians Discover the Family	3
2. Roots: Roman, German, Christian	16
II. The Early Middle Ages
3. The European Family: 500–700	45
4. The Carolingian Age	68
5. Anglo-Saxon England	99
Marriage and the Family in the Year 1000	116
III. The High Middle Ages
6. The Family Revolution of the Eleventh Century	121
7. The Twelfth Century: New Family Models	133
8. Peasants Before the Black Death: 1200–1347	157
9. The Aristocratic Lineage: Perils of Primogeniture	186
10. Children in the High Middle Ages	196
Marriage and the Family in the Year 1300	218
IV. The Late Middle Ages
11. The Impact of the Black Death	223
12. The Late Medieval Peasant Family: 1350–1500	235

13. A Family of the English Landed Gentry	251
14. A Merchant's Family in Fifteenth-Century Florence	271
Marriage and the Family After the Black Death	291
V. The End of the Middle Ages
15. Legacy	295
Notes	307
Bibliography	341
Index	359