

Contents

From Infectious Diseases to Welfare-related Diseases _____	6
---	---

MÅNS ROSÉN

The Basis of Knowledge – epidemiology, classification of diseases and population registers _____	8
--	---

MÅNS ROSÉN, BJÖRN SMEDBY

Epidemiology	9
Population statistics of world class	9
District medical officers' reports	10
International classification of diseases	14
The concept of disease varies	16
Diagnosing an illness – art or science?	17
Registers of diseases in Sweden	17
Registers save lives	20
The 1998 Personal Data Act	21

From the Past to the Present – dramatic improvements in public health _____	22
--	----

ANDERS BRÄNDSTRÖM, SÖREN EDVINSSON

Regional differences	24
Why did people fall ill in the old days?	35
Alcohol and health	41

Health and Sickness in Sweden Today _____	44
--	----

MÅNS ROSÉN, GUDRUN LINDBERG

Swedes live longer	44
Importance of lifestyle for health	48
Importance of social conditions for health	50
How important are working conditions?	53
Lifestyle and social patterns	54
Infant mortality as a social indicator	55
Many young people start with bad habits	58
Dental health	59
Long-term illnesses and health problems	60
Cardiovascular diseases	62
Diabetes – increased risks in rural districts	65
Various forms of cancer	66
Alcohol-related diseases	70
Fatal road accidents are more common in rural areas	71
Infectious diseases	72
Mental illness and suicide	73
Functional disorders	73
Tell me where you live and I'll say how well you are	75

Organisation, Resources and Effects of Medical Care _____
--	--

KAJ ESSINGER, GUDRUN LINDBERG, MÅNS ROSÉN

How medical care contributes	76
From district medical officer to primary care	81
Legislation and finance	83
Primary care and hospital care	86
Developments during the 1990s	90
Medical care costs	93
How are our medical resources utilised?	96
The quality of health and medical care	102

Rapid Post-War Expansion of Medical Services _____
---	--

BROR REXED, GUNNAR WENNSTRÖM

Medical Training and Research _____
-------------------------------------	--

Training programmes	110
---------------------	-----

GUDRUN LINDBERG

Success stories in medical research	114
-------------------------------------	-----

CARL-MAGNUS STOLT

What Can We Learn from History? _____
--	--

BROR REXED, GUNNAR WENNSTRÖM

Authors	122
---------	-----

Literature and References	122
---------------------------	-----

Data Sources	123
--------------	-----

Acknowledgements for Illustrations	124
------------------------------------	-----

Index	125
-------	-----