

Contents

1	Introduction: Citizen Organisations, Transnational Solidarity and Collective Learning in Europe	1
	Christian Lahusen, Ulrike Zschache, and Maria Kousis
Part I	Solidarity in Adverse Contexts: Crisis and Retrenchment	31
2	Transnational Solidarity Organisations in Contemporary Greek Civil Society: Vibrant, Multifarious and Politicised	33
	Kostas Kanellopoulos, Christina Kamkioulafi, Pinelopi Alexandropoulou, and Giorgos Soros
3	Civil Society Activism in Italy Across Different Fields: A Multifaceted Picture of Solidarity in Hard Times	61
	Nicola Maggini and Veronica Federico
4	New Challenges and Changing Opportunities: The Differing Responses of Transnational Solidarity Organisations in Germany	91
	Ulrike Zschache

Part II	Solidarity in Times of Welfare Retrenchment	129
5	Scopes of Solidarity in Times of Crisis: Insights from Poland	131
	Janina Petelczyc, Rafał Bakalarczyk, and Ryszard Szarfenberg
6	Changing Fields of Solidarity in France: A Cross-field Analysis of Migration, Unemployment and Disability	157
	Manlio Cinalli, Carlo De Nuzzo, and Cecilia Santilli
7	Against the Tide: Transnational Solidarity in Brexit Britain	181
	Simone Baglioni, Olga Biosca, and Tom Montgomery
8	The Danish Welfare State and Transnational Solidarity in Times of Crisis	209
	Deniz N. Duru, Hans-Jörg Trenz, and Thomas Spejlborg Sejersen
9	Organisational Solidarity in Switzerland Across Fields: Interlinkage Between Immigration and (Un)employment	235
	Eva Fernández G. G., Ophelia Nicole-Berva, and Anna-Lena Nadler
10	Conclusions: Differing Contexts, Converging Experiences, Transnational Solidarity	271
	Ulrike Zschache and Christian Lahusen
	Index	299