

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction 3

PART I. DEEP STRUCTURE, LONGUE DUREE: CHARTING THE HAJJ OVER THE CENTURIES

1. Ancient Pilgrims: Southeast Asia's Earliest Muslim Pilgrims 21
2. Mecca's Tidal Pull: The Red Sea and Its Worlds 41
3. Financing Devotion: The Economics of the Premodern Hajj 63
4. Sultanate and Crescent: Religion and Politics in the Indian Ocean 83

PART II. SAILOR, DOCTOR, STATESMAN, SPY: THE HAJJ THROUGH FOUR COLONIAL WINDOWS

5. In Conrad's Wake: Lord Jim, the "Patna," and the Hajj 109
6. A Medical Mountain: Health Maintenance and Disease
Control on the Hajj 133
7. The Skeptic's Eye: Snouck Hurgronje and the Politics of Pilgrimage 157
8. The Jeddah Consulates: Colonial Espionage in the Hejaz 177

PART III. MAKING THE HAJJ "MODERN":
PILGRIMS, STATES, AND MEMORY

9. Regulating the Flood: The Hajj and the Independent
Nation-State 203
10. On the Margins of Islam: Hajjis from Outside Southeast
Asia's "Islamic Arc" 229
11. I Was the Guest of Allah: Hajj Memoirs from Southeast Asia 251
12. Remembering Devotion: Oral History and the Pilgrimage 271
- Conclusion: The Longest Journey 293
- Archival Listings* 307
- Bibliography* 315
- Index* 347