

Contents

List of contributors	vii
1 Introduction Vincenzo Zeno-Zencovich	1
PART I THE THEORETICAL CHALLENGES TO THE CLASSICAL SEPARATION OF POWERS DOCTRINE
2 Introduction to Part I Andrea Pin	7
3 Revitalising the social foundations of the separation of powers? Eoin Carolan	11
4 Direct democracy and the separation of powers Zoltán Pozsár-Szentmiklós	31
5 New challenges to the separation of powers: the role of constitutional courts Luca Pietro Vanoni	46
6 The rise of conditionality within the global administrative space: a challenge for the separation of powers Antonia Baraggia	78
PART II TRANSFORMATIONS OF THE SEPARATION OF POWERS IN NATIONAL CONTEXT
7 Introduction to Part II Francesco Clementi	102
8 The separation of powers in new constitutions Francois Venter	105
9 Unpacking the separation of powers Jiří Baroš, Pavel Dufek and David Kosar	124

10	The transformation of political parties and the guardians of the Constitution: the evolution of the power structure in the Italian system Stefania Leone and Irene Pellizzone	144
PART III THE SEPARATION OF POWERS UNDER PRESSURE
11	Introduction to Part III Arianna Vedaschi	166
12	“The symbolic jurisprudence”: theorizing constitutional (re)capture, testing the limits of separation of powers and reimagining the judicial review Tomasz Tadeusz Koncewicz	180
13	EU “strict conditionality” from the perspective of the separation of powers Ioannis A. Tassopoulos	203
14	North Africa and the Middle East after the Arab uprisings: a new separation of powers? Francesco Biagi	224
15	Conclusion Miryam Iacometti	244
	Index	253