

Contents

1— The Subtle Scent of Modernism	7
2— Permanent Exhibition of Modern and Contemporary Czech Art	28
3— French Influences on the Path of Late 19 th Century Czech Art Towards Modernism	34
4— The Ideal and Myth of Corporeality in Czech Art of the Generation of the National Theater	40
5— The Generation of the 1890s	56
6— Symbolist Visions and Social Utopias in Turn of the Century Czech Art	64
7— In Search of Certainties	84
8— The Testimony of Social Reality and the Quest for New Possibilities	92
9— Decorative and Applied Arts in a Period of Civilizational Euphoria and Cataclysm, 1890–1918	98
10— The Generation of Expressionism and Cubism	104
11— Czech Cubism in Architecture, Design and Applied Art	116
12— The Stubborn Group (Tvrdošíjní) and Other Tendencies in Czech Modern Art after the First Civilizational Catastrophe	124
13— Social Painting and Sculpture of the 1920s	130
14— Art Deco, Rondo-Cubism and the Artěl Cooperative	140
15— Functionalism and the Avant-Garde Culture of the 1920s and 1930s	146
16— Stage Design	150
17— The 1930s	154
18— Cinema of the Avant-Garde Period	172
19— Avant-Garde Photography	174
20— Ladislav Sutnar and the Družstevní práce Cooperative	180
21— The Legacy of Czech Modernism and the Czech Avant-Garde	182