

CONTENTS

- 1 Examining Illiberal Trends and Anti-EU Politics
in East Central Europe from a Domestic Perspective:
State of Research and Outline of the Book 1
Lisa H. Anders and Astrid Lorenz

- Part I Societal Roots of the Illiberal Trends and Anti-EU
Politics

- 2 Illiberal and Anti-EU Politics in the Name of the People? Euroscepticism in East Central Europe
2004–2019 in Comparative Perspective 29
Lars Vogel

- 3 The Varying Challenge of Islamophobia for the EU:
On Anti-Muslim Resentments and Its Dividend for Right-Wing Populists and Eurosceptics—Central and Eastern Europe in a Comparative Perspective 57
Gert Pickel and Cemal Öztürk

- 4 Is There an East–West Divide over European Solidarity? Comparing European Citizens’ Attitudes Towards Cross-Border Solidarity 2016 81
Florian K. Kley and Holger Lengfeld

Part II Rhetoric and Practice of Illiberal and Anti-EU Politics

- 5 Differential Illiberalism: Classifying Illiberal Trends in Central European Party Politics 111
Vratislav Havlík and Vít Hloušek
- 6 Party Rhetoric and Action Compared: Examining Politicisation and Compliance in the Field of Asylum and Migration Policy in the Czech Republic and Hungary 137
Paula Beger
- 7 Pro-Europeans and ‘Euro-Realists’: The Party-Voters Linkage and Parties’ Political Agendas in Poland, 2004–2019 157
Michał Dulak
- 8 Same Same, but Different: Domestic Conditions of Illiberal Backlash Against Universal Rights in the Czech Republic and Slovakia 179
Petra Guasti

Part III EU Reactions to Illiberal and Anti-EU Politics

- 9 Talking Past Each Other: On Common Misperceptions in the Rule of Law Debate 209
Attila Vincze

10	Does It Help to Call a Spade a Spade? Examining the Legal Bases and Effects of Rule of Law-Related Infringement Procedures Against Hungary	235
	Lisa H. Anders and Sonja Priebus
11	Safeguarding Democracy and the Rule of Law by Civil Society Actors? The Case of Poland	263
	Claudia-Y. Matthes
 Part IV Theoretical Reflections and Conclusions
12	Contesting the EU, Contesting Democracy and Rule of Law in Europe. Conceptual Suggestions for Future Research	285
	Luca Tomini and Seda Gürkan
13	Towards a Political Theory of Democratic Backsliding? Generalising the East Central European Experience	301
	Ireneusz Paweł Karolewski
14	Illiberal Trends and Anti-EU Politics in East Central Europe: Major Findings and Avenues for Future Research	323
	Astrid Lorenz and Lisa H. Anders
	 Index	 349