

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Ongoing Deliberations on the Meaning and Value of EL	1
	Karen Lovett, Anna Biesecker-Mast, Maggie Cahill, Beth Hock, Christina Mesa, Abigail Neal, and Emily Schmitz
Section I	Community Engagement: Building Relationships Beyond the Classroom	11
2	Community-Engaged Learning: Sticky Learning About the Social World	13
	Molly Malany Sayre
3	Desperate Times Call for Experiential Learning: The Evolution of the Community Agency Project	25
	Catherine Lawless Frank
4	Human Rights Education Through Experiential Learning	41
	Shelley Inglis

Section II	Fostering Entrepreneurship, Creativity, and Problem-Solving Skills	59
5	Alumni Engagement Through Applied Creativity: A Case Study Brian LaDuca and Adrienne Ausdenmoore	61
6	An Experiential Learning Revolution: Engaging Business Students with Diverse Digital and Non-Digital Immersive Experiences with Not-for-Profit and for-Profit Organizations Irene J. Dickey	77
7	Experiential Learning in Laboratory Courses: Reflections on the Tiny Earth Curriculum Yvonne Sun	87
Section III	Race, Gender, Faith, and Cross-Cultural Perspectives in Experiential Learning	99
8	Leveraging Experiential Learning to Create Inclusive Community at Predominantly White Institutions Castel Sweet, Tom Morgan, and Jesse Hughes	101
9	393 Guineas: A Dialogue on Experiential Learning and Feminist Theory David J. Fine and Mary McLoughlin	115
10	Learning from Faith-Based Cross-Cultural Immersions Nick Cardilino, Samantha Kennedy, and Mary Niebler	131
Section IV	Supporting Student Development Through Mentorship and Reflection	151

- 11 Nurturing Learning Through the Pre-clinical Music
Therapy Supervision Relationship 153
Joy Willenbrink-Conte
- 12 Assigning Reflection in Experiential Learning for Professional Formation 171
Denise Platfoot Lacey
- 13 Encouraging Growth Through Experiential Education:
Contributions of a Teacher Educator 181
Carrie Rogan-Floom
- 14 Afterword: Reflecting on Post-COVID Experiential
Education and Learning 197
Kevin Dvorak and Mario D'Agostino