

Contents

Acknowledgements	x
List of authors	xi
Foreword	xviii
MICHELLE BACHELET
Message from the President of the International Council on Archives	xx
DAVID FRICKER
Introduction	1
JENS BOEL, PERRINE CANAVAGGIO AND ANTONIO GONZÁLEZ QUINTANA
PART 1
Archives and human rights: a close relationship	9
JENS BOEL, PERRINE CANAVAGGIO AND ANTONIO GONZÁLEZ QUINTANA
1 Archives and citizens' rights	11
2 Records and archives documenting gross human rights violations	21
3 Archives and transitional justice	41
4 Archives and the duty to remember	54
5 Archivists for human rights	57
6 Archives and human rights beyond political transitions	63

PART 2

Case studies	81
1 Proof	83
TRUDY HUSKAMP PETERSON
Africa	113
2 A long walk to justice: archives and the truth and reconciliation process in South Africa	115
GRAHAM DOMINY
3 Tunisia's Truth and Dignity Commission: archives in the pursuit of truth	126
ADEL MAÏZI
4 The exploitation of the archives of Hissène Habré's political police by the Extraordinary African Chambers	138
HENRI THULLIEZ
5 The Gacaca archive: preserving the memory of post-genocide justice and reconciliation in Rwanda	152
PETER HORSMAN
Asia	165
6 Memory politics and archives in Sino-Japanese relations	167
KARL GUSTAFSSON
7 The use of the archives of the Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum and the Documentation Centre of Cambodia by the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia	178
VINCENT DE WILDE D'ESTMAEL
Europe	189
8 Spanish military documentation on the Civil War and the dictatorship as an instrument of legal reparations for the victims of the Franco regime	191
HENAR ALONSO RODRÍGUEZ
9 The "Centres of Remembrance" in post-communist Europe	204
JOSÉ M. FARALDO

10	A legacy of the DDR: the Stasi Records Archive DAGMAR HOVESTÄDT	218
11	France and the archives of the Algerian War GILLES MANCERON AND GILLES MORIN	230
12	Truth, memory, and reconciliation in post-communist societies: the Romanian experience and the Securitate archives MARIUS STAN AND VLADIMIR TISMANEANU	247
	Latin America	261
13	Archives for memory and justice in Colombia after the Peace Agreements RAMON ALBERCHI I FUGUERAS	263
14	Utilisation of the archives of the Peruvian Commission for Truth and Reconciliation (CVR) RUTH ELENA BORJA SANTA CRUZ	277
15	Archives, truth and the democratic transition process in Brazil ALUF ALBA VILAR ELIAS	288
16	Archives for truth and justice in Argentina: the search for the missing persons MARIANA NAZAR	296
17	Chronicle of a backlash foretold: Guatemala's National Police archives, lost and found and lost – and found? – again KIRSTEN WELD	309
	Concluding remarks JENS BOEL, PERRINE CANAVAGGIO AND ANTONIO GONZÁLEZ QUINTANA	320
	Index	323