

■ IN BRIEF	4	Georgia flips the Senate ● Merrick's moment ● Sushi slump
■ OPINION	5	American resilience doesn't require American isolation
■ AGENDA	5	Viva Las (virtual) Vegas ● Banks report ● Life after Merkel
■ REMARKS	6	January 6, 2021: Insurrection

1 BUSINESS	10	Why do boards have so few Latino directors?
	12	China's next innovation: The used-car salesman

2 TECHNOLOGY	14	▼ Silicon Valley mourns free lunch
---------------------	----	------------------------------------

17 Amazon's got your wallets and eyes; now it wants your ears

3 FINANCE	18	The bubble checklist
	19	Chinese demand for copper brings a shine to scrap
	20	How Wells Fargo plans to leave its woes in the dust

4 ECONOMICS	22	Pros and cons of canceling student debt
	24	Covid proves it: Those Nordic socialists have a point

5 POLITICS	26	The marriage is over, but the U.K.-Europe ties still bind
	28	Biden aims to put pardons back in the hands of Justice

■ PURSUITS	53	Places to go in 2021 where you can make a difference
	54	Nurture wildlife from Scotland to the South Pole
	56	Tread lightly in Lapland or the Maldives
	58	Cultivate culture in Latvia, Senegal, and the Big Apple
	60	Give something back to your safari guides and Sherpas
	62	Challenge yourself in Andorra or Alabama

■ LAST THING	64	One investor's 20/20 look back at 2020
--------------	----	--

FEATURES

30

Suicide at Sea

For stranded crews, lockdown on a luxury liner was sometimes deadly

38

Doing Good or Doing Well?

The rise and fall of WE Charity, Canada's "philanthrocapitalist" juggernaut

48

Private Equity's Bitter Pill

Arbitration at doctors' offices boosts profits at the expense of patients' rights