

■ IN BRIEF	6	Trump's taxes ● Facebook in Australia ● Copper climbs
■ OPINION	7	Obamacare works, but there's room for improvement
■ AGENDA	7	The U.K. budget ● Reopening Germany ● America's Cup
■ REMARKS	8	"Fortress D.C." builds more barriers—and rattles the locals
1 BUSINESS	10	AstraZeneca's vaccine suffers the bumpiest rollout of all
	12	Those small Airbus planes could leave Boeing far behind
	14	A Buffett offspring sells China on altruistic ways to invest
2 TECHNOLOGY	16	▼ The young MIT grad who aced the virus numbers

	18	How Tatyana Bakalchuk came to dominate Russian e-tail
	19	Can Twilio keep cleaning up as the lockdown eases?
3 FINANCE	20	How pensions' far-flung investments fueled an oil fight
	22	GameStop could jump-start Democrats' bid to tax trades
	23	Invesco's Martin Flanagan on China, Bitcoin, and SPACs
4 ECONOMICS	24	Fixing infrastructure: And you thought Covid relief was big
	25	Bolsonaro retakes the reins from his finance minister
	26	France dusts off participative loans
5 POLITICS	28	A pandemic (Covid) makes an epidemic (opioids) worse
	30	After Mo Brooks's rants about Jan. 6, his donors turn tail
+ STRATEGIES	32	As sales soared, Piecework Puzzles kept from falling apart
	34	How to help workers through tough times like these
	35	MIT's Danielle Li on interviewing better job applicants
■ PURSUITS	55	Hawaii wants tourists back. But not just any tourists
	58	Ferran Adrià shares old recipes. Like, 2 million years old
	60	After the game, have a beer—a body-restoring beer
	61	A 4.24-carat emerald to wear around the house
	62	Art galleries had a surprisingly fabulous 2020
■ LAST THING	64	GE decided not to spin off health care. Smart move

FEATURES

36

These Shoes Are Made for Hawkin'

Sneakers are a bona fide asset class, thanks to some web-savvy resellers

42

Deep in the Snows of Texas

What went wrong with the power grid—and why it'll be so hard to fix

48

Uberized

The gig economy is coming for millions of jobs. Unions may help seal the deal