

Introduction

- Richard Wittmann and Yaşar Tolga Cora* 303–307
Fighting Under the Same Banner: Memories from the Ottoman Theater of the Great War

Articles

- Mehmet Beşikçi* 309–340
One War, Multiple Memories: Ottoman Reserve Officers in the First World War

- Charalampos Minasidis* 341–373
Experiencing and Surviving the Great War: Greek Orthodox Citizen Soldiers Under the Ottoman Banner

- Eyal Ginio* 375–399
Ha-Balkan Ha-Bo'er (The Balkans in Flames):
Serving the Adopted Motherland in the Balkan Wars

- Yaşar Tolga Cora* 401–428
“As Brave as Armenak Efendi”: Ethnic Hierarchies and the Precarious Masculinity of an Ottoman Armenian Officer during the Great War

- Benjamin C. Fortna* 429–448
Writing Under the Same Banner? Three Ottoman Wartime Memoirs and their Motivations

- Nicole A. N. M. van Os* 449–472
Living through Wartime: Female War Memoirs and Other Self-narratives of the Great War in the Ottoman Empire

- Gábor Fodor* 473–492
Hungarian Accounts from the Ottoman Fronts of the First World War

Kent F. Schull	493-523
Cpt. Robert Hofmann, Austrian Artillery Officer and Artist with the Ottomans in World War I
Johann Strauss	525-568
The Great War of the Postcards – Postcards and the Great War
Edhem Eldem	569-593
The Aesthetics of War: Ottoman Martial Iconography Under German Influence
Afterword
Abdülhamit Kırmızı	595-603
The Untimely Sources of World War I: Taking Advantage of the Obsession with Commemorations
Review Articles
M. Talha Çiçek	605-612
Relocating the Arabs in Turkish Historiography: A Review of the Book Series Arap Gözüyle Osmanlı
Gizem Tongo	613-617
The Long Shadow of a Decade in Turkish Memory: A Centenary of War (1912-1923)
Toygun Altıntaş	619-625
When the War Comes to Memoirs
Contents of Volume of 88 (2020)	627-629