

Contents

	List of figures and tables	vii
	Introduction: The Early Modern Merchant as a Collector	1
	CHRISTINA M. ANDERSON
PART I
	Beginning to collect	17
1	The commissioning and collecting of portraits by merchants in sixteenth- and early seventeenth-century England	19
	TARNYA COOPER
2	Portraits, pearls and things ‘wch are very straunge to owres’: the lost collections of the Thorne/Withypoll Trading Syndicate, 1520–1550	30
	HEATHER DALTON
PART II
	Behaving as collectors	47
3	Tea and commerce: Japanese merchants in the sixteenth-century as collectors and creators	49
	LOUISE A. CORT
4	Gardening in Goa: Filippo Sassetti’s experiences with Indian medicine and plants	63
	BARBARA KARL
PART III
	The role of provenance	81
5	Imperial treasures in the hands of a Ming merchant: Xiang Yuanbian’s collection	83
	AMY C. RIGGS

- 6 Considered judgement and prestigious provenance: Bartolomeo della Nave's acquisitions from the collection of Pietro Bembo 100
SUSAN NALEZYTY

PART IV

Collecting for a specific purpose 115

- 7 Boudewijn's books: a Dutch golden age merchant and his library 117
HENK LOOIJESTEIJN

- 8 Complementary activities: Marco Boschini, Paolo del Sera and Niccolò Renieri as merchants, collectors and painters in Seicento Venice 129
TARYN MARIE ZARRILLO

PART V

Dealers as collectors 141

- 9 Between collection and stock: the ambiguous role of merchants and artisans in the sixteenth-century Roman antiquities market 143
BARBARA FURLOTTI

- 10 Merchants as collectors and art dealers: the cases of Daniel Nijs and Carlo Hellemans, Flemish merchants in Venice 156
CHRISTINA M. ANDERSON

PART VI

Later generations of merchant collectors 167

- 11 Brothers in collecting: Thomas and Jacob Rehdiger – two sixteenth-century Silesian art collectors and bibliophiles 169
ALEKSANDRA LIPIŃSKA

- 12 Gaspard de Monconys, Provost-Marshall of the merchants and collector in seventeenth-century Lyon 184
ANNE-LISE TROPATO

PART VII

Merchants and collecting in the Islamic world 197

- 13 'Ali Akbar's red horse: collecting Arab horses in the early modern culture of Empire 199
ELIZABETH LAMBOURN

Bibliography 220

Contributors 249

Index 253