

Contents

List of Contributors	page viii
Preface	xi
Table of Cases	xiii
List of Abbreviations	xxv
1 Introduction	1
Bridges under Construction and Shifting Boundaries Helmut Philipp Aust and Thomas Kleinlein
PART I IDENTITIES AND INTERACTION
2 Foreign Relations Law As a Bargaining Tool?	23
Felix Lange
3 International Foreign Relations Law	46
Executive Authority in Entering and Exiting Treaties Edward T. Swaine
4 Comparative Foreign Relations Law between Center and Periphery	60
Liberal and Postcolonial Perspectives Michael Riegner
5 Finding Foreign Relations Law in India: A Decolonial Dissent	86
Prabhakar Singh

6	Foreign Legal Policy As the Background to Foreign Relations Law? Revisiting Guy de Lacharrière's La politique juridique extérieure Frédéric Mégret	108
7	Judicial Review, Foreign Relations and Global Administrative Law The Administrative Function of Courts in Foreign Relations Angelo Jr. Golia	130
PART II SOVEREIGNTY AND COOPERATION
8	The Conseil Constitutionnel's Jurisprudence on 'Limitations of Sovereignty' Niki Aloupi	161
9	Democratic Participation in International Lawmaking in Switzerland after the 'Age of Treaties' Anna Petrig	180
PART III POWERS AND PROCESSES
10	A Constitution Made for Mandela, a Constitutional Jurisprudence Developed for Zuma The Erosion of Discretion of the Executive in Foreign Relations Dire Tladi	215
11	From Scope to Process The Evolution of Checks on Presidential Power in US Foreign Relations Law Jean Galbraith	239
12	Division of Competences in the Field of Foreign Relations in the Polish Constitutional System Stanisław Biernat	252
13	The Role of Parliaments in Creating and Enforcing Foreign Relations Law A Case Study of Bosnia and Herzegovina Ajla Škrbić	274

14	War, International Law and the Rise of Parliament The Influence of International Law on UK Parliamentary Practice with Respect to the Use of Force Veronika Fikfak	299
15	China and Global Environmental Governance Coordination, Distribution and Compliance Ji Hua	317
FINAL REFLECTIONS
16	The Dynamic and Sometimes Uneasy Relationship Between Foreign Relations Law and International Law Curtis A. Bradley	343
17	The Present Salience of Foreign Relations Law Campbell McLachlan	355
	Index	373