

Contents

	Acknowledgments	vii
	Contributors	viii
	Introduction	1
1	“Mrs. Langtry Seems to Be on the Way to a Fortune”: The Jersey Lily and Models of Late Nineteenth-Century Fame Catherine Hindson	17
2	Helen Keller, Hollywood and Political Celebrity Abigail Salerno	37
3	Bloody Blondes and Bobbed-Haired Bandits: The Execution of Justice and the Construction of the Celebrity Criminal in the 1920s Popular Press April Miller	61
4	Rocket Scientist!: The Posthumous Celebrity of Hedy Lamarr Ruth Barton	82
5	Grotesquerie as Marker of Success in Aging Female Stars Anne Morey	103
6	“I’m Like a Kaleidoscope”: Mia Farrow and the Shifting Prismatic of Modern Femininity in the 1960s Leslie H. Abramson	125
7	Girls Imagining Careers in the Limelight: Social Class, Gender and Fantasies of “Success” Kim Allen	149

8	Cool Postfeminism: The Stardom of Sofia Coppola Caitlin Yunuen Lewis	174
9	The Insanity Plea: Female Celebrities, Reality Media and the Psychopathology of British Pop-Feminism Emma Bell	199
10	The Horror of Something to See: Celebrity "Vaginas" as Prostheses Margaret Schwartz	224
11	Strengthening as They Undermine: Rachel Maddow and Suze Orman's Homonormative Lesbian Identities Joselyn Leimbach	242
12	Living The Hills Life: Lauren Conrad as Reality Star, Soap Opera Heroine, and Brand Alice Leppert and Julie Wilson	261
13	Immigration, Authorship, Censorship, and Terrorism: The Politics of M.I.A.'s US Crossover Candice Haddad	280
14	We Love This Trainwreck!: Sacrificing Britney to Save America Anna Watkins Fisher	303
	Index	333