

Contents

- Acknowledgements IX
List of Figures X
Abbreviations XIII
Notes on Contributors XIV

Introduction: Dying, Death, and Commemoration, 1350–1700 1

Philip Booth and Elizabeth Tingle

PART I

Dying, Death, Burial and the Afterlife

- 1 Changing Western European Visions of Christian Afterlives, 1350–1700:
Heaven, Hell, and Purgatory 33
Elizabeth Tingle
- 2 Preparations for a Christian Death: The Later Middle Ages 72
Stephen Bates
- 3 Deathbed and Burial Rituals in Late Medieval Catholic Europe 106
Madeleine Gray
- 4 “Do This in Remembrance of Me”: Offerings, Identity, and Bills in the Medieval English Royal Funeral 132
Anna M. Duch
- 5 The Reformation of Burial in the Protestant Churches 156
Gordon D. Raeburn
- 6 The Counter Reformation and Preparations for Death in the European Roman Catholic Church, 1550–1700 175
Elizabeth Tingle
- 7 Dying, Death and Burial in the Christian Orthodox Tradition: Byzantium and the Greek Churches, ca. 1300–1700 199
Zachary Chitwood

- 8 Death, Burial and Remembrance: The Christian Orthodox Tradition in the East of Europe 225
Ludwig Steindorff

PART 2

Cultural and Emotional Responses to Loss: Grief and Commemoration

- 9 Body, Liturgy, and Tomb Monuments in the Later Middle Ages 251
Robert Marcoux
- 10 Images of Death in Art and Literature in Late Medieval and Early Modern Europe (1300–1700) 272
Christina Welch
- 11 Funeral Sermons and the Reformation: The British Isles and Germany
- Part I. Funeral Sermons over Time: From Catholic to Protestant in the British Isles 300
Jacqueline Eales
- Part II. Protestant Funeral Sermons in Early-Modern Germany 319
Ruth Atherton
- 12 Dramatizing and Celebrating Death in the Early-Modern Visual Arts: The Fortunes of the Post-Tridentine Iconography of Martyrdom 339
Ralph Dekoninck
- 13 The Motion of Another's Death: Grief and Mourning 368
Christopher Ocker
- 14 Relics and Saints: Commemoration and Memorialization of the Holy Dead 393
Freddy C. Domínguez

- 15 The Undead: Ghosts and Revenants 418
Polina Ignatova

Bibliography 439

Index 500