

Contents

Introduction: Music - Memory - Minorities: Between Archive and Activism Zuzana Jurková and Veronika Seidlová	7
The Gypsy Musicians of Romania: The Past and the Timeless Universe that Takes Its Place. Essay Speranța Rădulescu	21
Presence and Absence of Minorities in Folk Music Research Projects in the 20th Century Czech Lands Matěj Kratochvíl	36
Archival Collections of “Private” Field Recordings and Romani Cultural Memory Christiane Fennesz-Juhasz	49
How Can We Put Musical Remembering on Display? The Participation of Musical Culture Stakeholders in the Exhibition Project “Lavutara - Travels of Romani Musicians and Their Songs” of the Museum of Romani Culture in Brno Matyáš Dlab	69
A Present-Past Dialogue. Re-encountering Robert Lachmann’s “Oriental Music” Project in Present-day Israel-Palestine Ruth F. Davis	88
Musical Remembering with the “Old Lady”: Cultural Biography of the Organ in Prague’s Jeruzalémská Synagogue with a Focus on Its Present-day Revival Veronika Seidlová	114

Romani Musical Remembering

Zuzana Jurková

138

Authors

160