

Contents

1 Introduction	1
References	5
2 Understanding Famine	7
2.1 General	7
2.2 Defining Famine	8
2.3 Diagnosing and Operationalizing Famine	13
2.4 Conclusion	16
References	17
3 Classical Famine Approaches	21
3.1 General	21
3.2 The Malthusian Approach	22
3.3 The Smithian Approach	27
3.4 The FAD-Approach	31
3.5 Conclusion	33
References	34
4 The Entitlement Approach	37
4.1 General	37
4.2 The Entitlement Approach	38
4.3 The Entitlement Approach Debate	41
4.3.1 The Framework Ignores Food Supply	42
4.3.2 The Entitlement Approach Ignores War and Collapses of Legal Structures	44
4.3.3 The Framework Ignores Politics	49
4.4 Conclusion	50
References	51
5 The Political System	57
5.1 General	57
5.2 Sen's Theory of Democracy and Famine	58

5.3	Assessment of Sen's Theory of Democracy and Famine	61
5.4	Conclusion	68
	References	69
6	The Political Accountability Approach	73
6.1	General	73
6.2	Accountability	74
6.3	Humanitarian Accountability and Famine	75
6.3.1	Humanitarian Accountability and Responsibility	76
6.3.2	Humanitarian Accountability and Sacrifice	78
6.3.3	Humanitarian Accountability and Remoteness	79
6.3.4	Humanitarian Accountability and Analogies	80
6.4	Moving from Humanitarian Accountability to Political Accountability	81
6.5	Political Accountability and Famine	84
6.5.1	Political Accountability Typologies and Matrices	84
6.5.2	The Political Accountability Approach	86
6.5.3	Applying the Political Accountability Approach—Two Examples	90
6.6	Conclusion	95
	References	97