

gymnasts on the victory podium at the Mexico City Olympic Games. / Page 95 / Czechoslovak volleyball players won a bronze medal in Mexico City / Another bronze medal was the one Miroslav Zeman won in wrestling in the up to 52 kg weight category. / Petr Kment also won a bronze medal in wrestling in the super heavyweight category. / Page 98 / Helena Školová, bronze medal in the 5 kilometers Nordic skiing event / Ondřej Nepela won a gold medal in Sapporo. / Page 99 / The Svojanovský brothers with coxswain Petříček won a silver medal in Munich. In Montreal they won a bronze medal with coxswain Véber. / Page 100 / Ludvík Daněk climbs up to the highest level in the podium for medal winners. / The handball team coached by Jiří Vicha brought home silver medals from Munich. / Page 102 / Josef Panáček won a gold medal in shooting in Montreal. / Page 103 / Helena Fibingerová won a bronze medal in the shot put. / Wrestler Vítězslav Mácha found an adversary who was better than he was only in the finals. / Page 104 / Cyclist Anton Tkáč excelled in the sprint. / The winners of a silver medal in the pentathlon: Jan Bártů, Bohumil Starnovský and Jiří Adam. / Rowers Zdeněk Pecka, Václav Vochoska, Vladimír Lacina and Jaroslav Helebrand won a bronze medal in the quadruple sculls event / Page 105 / František Kroulík and Antonín Hilli accompanied Lord Killarney during his visit in Czechoslovakia. / Page 106 / The 79th session of the I.O.C. was held in Prague in 1977 / Page 107 / Květa Pecková-Jerová, one of our most successful cross-country skiers. / Page 108 / Our judoka Vladimír Kocman brought home a bronze medal from Moscow. / The medal won by rowers Zdeněk Pecka and Václav Vochoska in the double scull event had the same value. / Our gymnast Jiří Tabáček won another bronze medal in the rings. / Page 109 / Jarmila Kratochvílová, number 411, was second in the 400 meter run. / Our cyclists' team composed of Zastavský, Penc, Černý and Sláma won a bronze medal in the 4000-meter team pursuit event. / Our cyclists specializing in road contests, Škoda, Klasa and Kostadinov fared equally. / Imrich Bugár won a silver medal in the discus throw. / Page 110 / Football fans were very satisfied with our football players who won the tournament in Moscow. / Ota Zembra with his gold medal which Jarmila Kratochvílová is looking at with interest. / Page 112 / Our team of cross country skiing contestants composed of K. Jerová, G.Svobodová, B. Paůl and D. Svubová has just finished the 4 x 5 km relay Race in which they won a silver medal. / Page 113 / Our ice hockey players finished in the second place, having succumbed to the USSR Only in the finals / Olga Charvátová (right) on the victory podium. / Pavel Ploč flew for his bronze medal in the individual high hill ski jump. / Figure skater Jozef Sabovčík was also third. / Page 114 / Antonín Hilli was for a long time president of the Czechoslovak Physical Education Union and of the Czechoslovak Olympic Committee. / Page 115 / The ski jumpers' team: Jiří Parma, Pavel Ploč and Jiří Malac. / Page 116 / Pavel Ploč silver medal in the ski jump, normal hill, individual event. / Page 117 / Tennis players Jana Novotná and Helena Suková won a silver medal in the doubles. / Page 118 / Miroslav Bednářik won a silver medal in shooting in the clay pigeon event. / Miroslav Varga aimed even better. He won a gold medal in the small-bore rifle, prone event. / Page 119 / Jozef Pribilinec won a gold medal in the 20 000 meter walk. / Tennis player Miroslav Mečíř was in a splendid shape. None of his adversaries was a match for him. / Page 120 / Věra Čáslavská, a seven-fold Olympic gold medal winner, became president of the Czechoslovak Olympic Committee. / Page 122 / Our team of ski jumpers: Parma, Sakala, Goder and Jež. / Page 123 / Our ice hockey players brought home a bronze medal from Albertville. / Figure skater Petr Barna was third. / Page 124 / Jan Železný, gold medal winner in the javelin throw. / Page 125 / Robert Změlík became the best decathlon contestant. / Page 126 / Petr Hrdlička became an Olympic Shooting Champion by winning the trap event. / Page 127 / Lukáš Pollert took out a gold medal from the white-water by winning the Canadian slalom singles. / Page 128 / Václav Chalupa, silver medal in the single sculls in rowing. / Page 129 / A delegation of the Czechoslovak Olympic Committee at the I.O.C. headquarters in Lausanne. From the left: P. Herych, K. Špaček, J.A. Samaranch, P. Hronek, V. Čáslavská, L. Daněk, J. Bělohávek and J. Kössi. / Page 130 / Female biathlon competitors' relay at the Lillehammer O.C. / Our pair, Radka Kovaříková and René Novotný, represented us successfully in the figure skating. / Page 131 / Průl, Jiří Král, M.D., the founder of Czech Sports Medicine / Our shooting competitor Petr Kůrka with Dr. Jiří Guth-Jarkovský's Prize. / Page 132 / The administrative center of the Czech Olympic Committee in Prague. / Page 133 / Martin Doktor receiving the Dr. Jiří Guth-Jarkovský Prize / Olympic Orders awarded in 1995. From the left: J. Rogge, president of the European Olympic Committees, Dana Zátoczková, J. A. Samaranch, Emil Zátopek, Ludvík Daněk and Věra Čáslavská. / Page 134 / Martin Doktor won two gold medals in Atlanta in canoeing in both the Canadian singles 1000 meters and the Canadian singles 500 meters events / Jan Železný brought home a gold medal which he won in the javelin throw. / Page 135 / Štěpánka Hilgertová won a gold medal in the kayak slalom singles event in canoeing. / Miroslav Šimek and Jiří Rohan were second in the Canadian slalom pairs event in canoeing. / Page 136 / Jana Novotná and Helena Suková finished in the third place in the doubles in tennis. / In the singles Jana Novotná was even more successful. She was second. / Page 137 / Tomáš Dvořák, bronze medal in the decathlon / Sárka Kašpárková, third in the triple jump. / Page 138 / The President of the Czech Olympic Committee Milan Jirásek with his collaborators Karol Špaček and Jozef Dováčil. / Page 139 / The victorious ice hockey team after the end of the tournament. / Page 140 / Fatigue and emotion in the eyes of the players as they look on their flag which is being raised to the highest staff. / Page 141 / Katerína Neumamrová won a silver and a gold medal in nordic skiing in Nagano. / Page 144 / Dominik Hašek, a very important member of our ice hockey team at the Nagano Olympic Winter Games.

ČESKÝ OLYMPISMUS - 100 LET

© Hana Havránková, Pavel Hladík, František Kolář, Jiří Kössi, Marek Waic, 1999 • Příklad resumé Karel Wendl • Fotografie Eduard Erben, Jiří Koliš, Karel Novák, Jiří Pekárek, Janoušek Skála, archiv Jiřího Kössla, archiv Českého olympijského výboru, Muzeum tělesné výchovy a sportu, Österreichisches Olympia- und Sport Museum Wien • Vydalo Nakladatelství Olympia, a. s., Klimentův 1, 110 15 Praha 1, v roce 1999 jako svou 2964. publikaci, 1. vydání, 160 stran • Odpovědná redaktorka Marcela Novotná • Grafická úprava a návrh obálky Zbyněk Zajíček • Zlom a litografie Computer 2000 Praha, a. s. • Vytiskla GRAFIA, s.r.o., Zlín 17-029-99

ISBN 80-7033-579-3

OBSAH

Slovo na úvod	5
1894-1918
Obnovení olympijských her	7
Založení Českého výboru pro hry olympijské	9
Činnost Českého výboru pro hry olympijské v letech 1900-1905	12
Boj o existenci a samostatnost Českého výboru pro hry olympijské 1905-1909	16
České olympijské hry a činnost ČOV v letech 1909-1911	23
Úsilí ČOV zajistit samostatnou českou účast na V. OH 1912 ve Stockholmu	27
Jednání o českém sportovním politickém programu v r. 1913	31
Vyloučení Čechů z mezinárodního olympijského hnutí	33
Úřední zastavení činnosti Českého olympijského výboru	34
1918-1945
Obnovení činnosti a vznik ČSOV	37
Antverpy 1920: Poprvé pod československou vlajkou	39
Spory o kompetence 1923-1924, Týden zimních sportů v Chamonix a OH v Paříži	42
Mezinárodní olympijský kongres v Praze 1925	45
Nové stanovy ČSOV, vznik Čs. všesportovního výboru a přípravy na II. ZOH a IX. OH 1928	49
OH ve Sv. Mořici a Amsterdamu v roce 1928	50
Pod novým vedením ČSOV	53
III. ZOH v Lake Placid a X. OH v Los Angeles	55
ČSOV v době ohrožení fašismem	60
IV. ZOH v Garmisch-Partenkirchenu a XI. OH v Berlíně 1936	61
ČSOV v době nejtěžší	67
1945-1949
Obnovení činnosti ČSOV	71
V. ZOH ve Sv. Mořici a XIV. OH v Londýně	74
Začátek 50. let, VI. ZOH v Oslu a XV. OH v Helsinkách	78
Reorganizace tělovýchovného hnutí	80
VII. ZOH v Cortině d'Ampezzo a XVI. OH v Melbourne	81
Československý svaz tělesné výchovy	83
VIII. ZOH ve Squaw Valley a XVII. OH v Římě	84
Nejistá mezinárodní situace	86
IX. ZOH v Innsbrucku a XVIII. OH v Tokiu	87
Období převratných změn	91
X. ZOH v Grenoblu a XIX. OH v Mexiku	92
1969-1989
Počátky normalizace	97
XI. ZOH v Sapporu a XX. OH v Mnichově	98
X. olympijský kongres ve Varně	101
Klub olympioniků a Klub fair play	101
XII. ZOH v Innsbrucku a XXI. OH v Montrealu	102
Zasedání MOV v Praze a československý olympismus v 80. letech	105
XIII. ZOH v Lake Placid a XXII. OH v Moskvě	107
XI. olympijský kongres v Baden Badenu a bojkot	111
XXIII. OH v Los Angeles	112
XIV. ZOH v Sarajevu	112
Vznik Československé olympijské akademie	114
XV. ZOH v Calgary a XXIV. OH v Soulu	115

1989-1999

V obnovení demokracií a v novém státě	121
XVI. ZOH v Albertville a XXV. OH v Barceloně	122
Rozdělení republiky a jeho důsledky	129

Statistika a resumé	145
---------------------	-----