

Lesson One: Introductions ( G. Mikes ) . . . . .	13
Listening: A Foreign Visitor /15/ Oral Practice: Forms of introduction /18/ Agreement and disagreement /19/ Confirming or denying the statements /19/ Say the reverse (final -s in the 3rd person sg.) /20/ Polite requests /21/ A misunderstanding /21/ Welcoming and introducing /22/
Lesson Two: The Daily Programme . . . . .	23
Listening: Making an Appointment /26/ Oral Practice: Agreement and disagreement with affirmative statements /28/ Questions and answers about habitual actions /29/ Saying "thank you" /30/ Likes and dislikes /31/ Mrs Blake's diary /31/
Lesson Three: The Weather ( G. Mikes ) . . . . .	33
Listening: The Weather Is Rather Changeable, Isn't It? /36/ Oral Practice: Strong agreement /38/ Prepositions and expressions denoting time /39/ Question tags /39/ Telling the time /40/ If -clauses in the future /41/ Discussing the weather /41/ The weather in Britain /42/
Lesson Four: The Changing American Family ( M. Mead ) . . . . .	44
Listening: Mrs Brown's Family /47/ Oral Practice: A person's appearance /49/ Agreement with negative statements /50/ Quite — rather /50/ Strong agreement (adverbial — adjectival phrases) /51/ Personal qualities /51/ The family tree (Possessive case) /51/ Greetings and farewells /52/
Lesson Five: Education in Britain . . . . .	56
School subjects /59/ Listening: Schools in the United States /60/ Oral Practice: Contradicting a statement /63/ Short affirmative and negative answers /64/ Apologies /64/ School education in Britain and in this country /65/ Learning foreign languages /66/
Lesson Six: Work . . . . .	68
Listening: Women Work Harder /73/ Oral Practice: Questions and answers with modal verbs /75/ Agreement and disagreement with affirmative statements /76/ Asking about one's job /76/ Showing sb round one's place of work /78/
Lesson Seven: How We Live . . . . .	80
Convenient or suitable /82/ Dwellings /83/ Building materials /83/ Listening: How Do You Fancy This Room? /84/ Oral Practice: Polite invitations /87/ Asking for agreement /88/ Question tags ( don't you? ) /88/ Asking for information /89/
Lesson Eight: Getting about Town . . . . .	91
Listening: A True Story /94/ Oral Practice: Phrases with the verbs of motion /96/ Suggestions (Let's, why don't we, how about) /97/ Expressing the future /97/ The London Underground /98/ A game: Where do I want to go? /99/

Lesson Nine: Studies . . . . . 101

The suffixes -ful and -less /103/ Listening: Universities in Britain /105/ Oral Practice: The past tense and the present perfect tense /108/ All of us, some of us /108/ Replies to questions which of you? /109/ Selected university degrees /110/ Higher educational establishments /110/ University teachers /111/

Lesson Ten: A Trip by Train . . . . . 113

Means of transport /115/ Listening: Around London /116/ Oral Practice: Denying the statements /119/ Giving advice or making suggestions (should + the present and perfect infinitives) /120/ Prepositions of place /120/ Expressing obligation and absence of obligation /122/ Asking for information about the trains /122/ On the train /123/

Lesson Eleven: Nobel Prize Winner . . . . . 125

Listening: An Interview /128/ Oral Practice: Short replies to affirmative statements /131/ Asking about personal data /131/ Short replies to negative statements /132/ Questions and replies of the type There were many... /133/ Who is he? (A riddle) /133/ A game: Who am I? /134/

Lesson Twelve: Food . . . . . 135

Listening: Dining Out /138/ Oral Practice: Three ways of expressing preference /141/ Neither do I /142/ Affirmative and negative statements about food (The use of articles before the names of the meals and food) /142/ What does it taste like? /143/ In a restaurant (The use of articles) /144/ At the table (Useful phrases concerning table manners) /144/

Lesson Thirteen: Shopping . . . . . 147

Expressing very small quantities /150/ Listening: A Difficult Customer /151/ Oral Practice: Replies using the names of the shops /153/ Expressing the quantities /154/ Conditional clauses /154/ Asking about the quantity /155/ Shopping (Useful phrases) /155/

Lesson Fourteen: Clothes and Fashion . . . . . 158

Expressions concerning clothing /160/ Listening: Packing for a Holiday /162/ Oral Practice: Polite agreement /164/ Polite disagreement /165/ Exclamations /166/ The pronoun one/ones /166/ A game: Are you a keen observer? /166/

Lesson Fifteen: The Post Office . . . . . 168

How to use a public phone in Britain /170/ Listening: A Telephone Conversation /172/ Oral Practice: Polite requests /174/ Investigating the GPO robbery (The past continuous tense) /175/ Protesting answers /175/ Making telephone calls (Useful phrases) /176/ To have or not to have a telephone (A discussion) /177/

Lesson Sixteen: Theatre and Cinema . . . . . 179

How is a film made? /182/ Listening: Mrs Evans Wants to Go to the Cinema /183/ Oral Practice: Expressing possibility (may + the present and perfect infinitives) and negative deductions (can't + the present or perfect infinitive) /185/ Make questions (The present perfect and past tense) /187/ A game /187/

Lesson Seventeen: A Fleeting Glance at Prague . . . . .	190
Prepositions and expressions denoting place and motion /193/ Listening: A Guided Tour of London /194/ Oral Practice: Expressing uncertainty, probability, doubt /196/ The styles of architecture in this country and in Britain /197/ Painting and sculpture /198/ Asking about Prague sights (which – what) /198/
Lesson Eighteen: Mr Arding Doesn't Feel Well . . . . .	201
Listening: The Progress of Medicine (S. Leacock) /204/ Oral Practice: Polite concern /207/ Illnesses and diseases /207/ Expressing sympathy /208/ Asking about health (Phrases) /210/ A game: What's troubling you? /210/
Lesson Nineteen: Entertainments . . . . .	212
Listening: A Surprise Visit (S. Leacock) /215/ Oral Practice: Temporal clauses (as soon as, until ...) /217/ A tea party (Useful phrases) /218/ Conditional clauses /219/ US public holidays /220/ Party games /220/
Lesson Twenty: Hobbies . . . . .	222
Listening: Do-It-Yourself /225/ Oral Practice: Commenting on the statements /227/ Verbs followed by the infinitive /228/ Verbs followed by how to /228/ Expressing habitual actions in the past /229/ Discussing hobbies /229/
Lesson Twenty-One: Sport in Britain (P. Bromhead) . . . . .	231
Sports and games (A list) /234/ Listening: Ice Hockey Versus a TV Play /235/ Oral Practice: Expressing surprise, pity or disappointment /237/ Answering questions (The present perfect continuous and simple present perfect tense, habitual actions in the past) /238/ Question tags (You needn't ... need you? You used to ... didn't you? Let's start, shall we?) /238/
Lesson Twenty-Two: Radio and Television . . . . .	241
Musical instruments /243/ Listening: The Opera Premiere of the Girl of the Golden West /245/ Oral Practice: How to manipulate a radio or TV set /248/ Answering in the passive voice /248/ Confirming the statements (Yes, he's said, thought, known etc.) /249/
Lesson Twenty-Three: Borrowing Books . . . . .	252
Listening: In the Library /255/ Oral Practice: So do I – I don't either /258/ So have I – Neither have I – He hasn't either /258/ Making questions with final prepositions /259/ Books, periodicals and daily press (Useful phrases) /260/ How fast can you read? /261/
Lesson Twenty-Four: Motoring . . . . .	263
American expressions concerning the car /267/ Listening: A Puncture /268/ Oral Practice: Very polite requests /270/ To have (get, want) sth done /270/ Expressing sympathy and congratulations /271/ A car accident /272/
Lesson Twenty-Five: Holidays . . . . .	275
Lucky, luck or happy /277/ Listening: An Ideal Holiday /279/ Oral Practice: Adverbial phrases (Word order) /282/ Restrictive adverbial – adjectival phrases (quite, almost, hardly, enough etc.) /282/ An ideal holiday (A discussion) /283/
Key to Lexical Exercises . . . . .	285