

Contents:

J. Jurova, M. Jozek, A. Kiepas, P. Machura, Preface	3
Part I: An overview of ethos
G. Gango, Eastern European Social Sciences After 1989	7
P. Machura, Central-European Ethos: Equality, Social Emergence and Claims to Justice ..	16
B. Mester, Consequences of Philosophy Written in National Languages in 19th-century Central Europe: Vocabulary, Audience, and Identity	26
M. Malek, Ethical Aspects of New Technologies: Equality and Justice	34
P. Kvaltyn, National Anthems as an Extract of National Ethos	43
Part II: Justice and Equality in a Central-European Context
C. Diatka, C. Turcan, Contribution to the Understanding of Justice in Contemporary Philosophy	54
A. Leskova, M. Klobusicka, Inequality and the Requirement of Equal Opportunities	66
J. Jurova, Equality and Inequality within Social Justice	76
P. Koreny, Equality in the Right to Freedom of Conscience	85
V. Jezkova, Equality or Dominance? Philosophical Analysis of the Principles of Governance	98
V. Manda, On Some Aspects of the Ethos of Slovak Society and its Connection with Hayek's Concept of Social Justice	107
A. Michalik, The Issue of Social Justice in Slovak Politics after 1989	121
Part III: Ethos in focus – creators and actors
G. Kovacs, Region of Deformities? – The Image of Central-Eastern Europe in the Political Philosophy of Istvan Bibo	133
M. Jozek, Jan Chryzostom Korec – the Servant of Truth and Justice (an Outline of Several Thoughts and Relations)	141
R. Kralik, T. Mahrik, The Concept of Justice by Karel Kryl	155
Notes on Authors	164