

CONTENTS

PART ONE

1.1 Economy	13
1.2 Unexpected Internal Chinese Paradox	18
1.2.1 Problem of Corruption	19
1.2.2 Concrete Examples	19
1.2.3 Problem of the Lack of a Workforce	24
1.2.3/1 Import of Technologies	24
1.2.3/2 Suicides	28
1.2.3/3 Consequences of the Anti-population Policy	32

PART TWO

2.1 Slavery Chinese Style	38
2.2 Slavery as a Form of Social Obligation	41
2.2/1 Sale of Girls	41
2.2/2 Adoption of Boys for a Payment	43
2.2/3 Boys sold as Sexual Toys	44
2.3 Slaves as a Form of Production Tools	47
2.3.1 How does a person become a slave in China?	48
2.3.1/1 Sold and Kidnapped Children	50
2.3.1/2 Those who travelled to complain	53
2.3.1/3 Mentally Handicapped and Mentally Ill	58
2.3.2 Where do slaves work?	60
2.3.3 Traps at Sea	64

PART THREE

3.1 Several Important Thoughts	70
3.2 Why are there foreign slaves in China?	75
3.3 Mainly who and from where?	77
3.4 Hunters of North Koreans in China	81
3.5 False South Korean Abolitionists	83
3.6 Low-price Goods	88
3.7 What to do next with a runaway?	89
3.8 The fate of others	91
3.9 Once again about the disastrous consequences of the Chinese anti-population policy	92
3.10 Greatly Deceived Group	103
3.11 North Korean Police and Intelligence Groups in China Investigate and Intervene	104
EPILOGUE	112