

Contents

---

Introduction	5
I. Natural health resorts and their protection
The concept of natural health resorts	9
The purpose and local importance of the natural health resorts	9
The establishment of natural health resorts	10
The closing down of natural health resorts	12
The spas	13
The protection of natural health resorts	13
The spa statutes	13
Protective zones	25
Essential temporary measures	27
II. The national committees in spa towns
Tasks of the national committees	28
Agencies of the national committees	30
The spa commission	30
Cooperation of the national committees with the Inspectorate of Spas and Medicinal Springs	32
Spa tax	32
III. The organisation of natural health resorts
Spa establishments	37
Spa policlinics	39
Additional and auxiliary establishments	40
Administrative, economic, and technical services	40
The spa organisations	40

IV. Spa care
The meaning of spa care	44
The purpose of spa care	45
The selection of patients for clinical spa treatment	45
Regular holidays and spa care	46
Payment of the cost of spa treatment	47
Out-patient spa care	48
Spa treatment for patients from abroad	49
The organisation of spa care	49
List of therapeutic establishments and of the respective group of indications	50
V. Natural therapeutic agents, their use and protection
Natural therapeutic agents in general	58
Springs of natural mineral water	58
Natural medicinal deposits of peloids	61
Natural sources of curative gas	62
Declaration of agents as medicinal	62
Sources of natural therapeutic agents national property	64
Utilisation of natural curative agents	64
Hydrologic and chemical control of the natural medicinal agents	65
Rescinding the declaration of natural agents as medicinal	66
Protection of sources of natural therapeutic agents	66
Protective zones	66
Other protective measures	67
Setting up protective zones and other protective measures	67
Necessary temporary protective measures	68
Drilling, mining, and other projects in the area of natural therapeutic sources	69
Natural mineral water as a beverage	71
Climatic conditions	72
VI. The Research Institute for Physiatry, Balneology and Climatology
The task of the Institute	74
The scientific council of the Ministry of Health	75
VII. Inspectorate of Spas and Springs
The tasks of the Inspectorate of Spas and Springs	77
The rights of the staff of the Inspectorate of Spas and Springs and the duties of the organs and organisations	78
Cooperation of the Inspectorate of Spas and Springs and the organs of the State Mining Authority	78
VIII. Regulations used	82