

KNIHOVNA AV CR

AK 3189

@ 05228/05

Contents

Preface

Zdenka Mansfeldová, David M. Olson, Petra Rakušanová 7

Section I.

Parliamentary Research Agenda

Members of the German Bundestag in Perspective:
Recruitment, Representation, and European Integration
across Time and Countries

Bernhard Wessels 10

The Politics between Parliament and Government
– the Institutional Framework and the Reality
within the Czech Parliament

Zdenka Mansfeldová 28

Section II.

Parliaments and the Processes of Globalization and Europeanization

Parliaments of Central and Eastern European Candidate Countries and the EU Enlargement

Jindřiška Syllová, Petr Kolář 48

Changing Functions of National Parliaments

Drago Zajc 60

Measuring and Comparing the Powers of Legislatures

Edward Schneider 76

Section III.

The Role of Political Parties in the Parliaments

Party and Committee: Intersecting Structures
in Post-Communist Parliaments

David M. Olson 88

The More Parties Vote and the Bigger Their Majority is,
the Less United They Are

Lukáš Linek, Petra Rakušanová 102

Cabinet Stability in Post-Communist Democratic Legislature

Nikolenyi Csaba 120

Party Unity in German Parliaments

Werner Patzelt 138

Section IV.

Legislative Recruitment

Moldovan Legislative Elites in Transition

William Crowther 156

Recruitment of the Parliamentary Elite
in the Course of the Nineties

Adéla Seidlová 172

Career Patterns and Career Preferences of Romanian MPs

Stefan Laurentiu 184

The Central Core in the Hungarian Parliament

András Schwarz 202

Beyond the First Decade: Research Directions
in Post-Communist Parliaments

David M. Olson 216

Abstracts 234

About authors 240