

Contents

Notes on contributors	ix
Acknowledgements	xii
List of abbreviations	xiii
Introduction: Towards a critical social science of CAM in nursing and midwifery	1
JON ADAMS AND PHILIP TOVEY
PART I
Inter-professional issues	9
1 CAM integration in inter-professional context: nursing, midwifery and medicine in Canada	11
IVY L. BOURGEOULT AND KRISTINE A. HIRSCHKORN
2 The emerging role of alternative midwifery within the wider socio-political sphere: a focus upon alternative birth care providers and their relationship with conventional medicine	33
PAAIGE K. TURNER
3 'Snake oil peddling': CAM and the occupational status of doctors and nurses	52
PETER MORRALL

PART II

Intra-professional issues

71

- 4 The authentication of CAM in nursing: an examination of historic referencing in selected nursing journals 73
PHILIP TOVEY AND JON ADAMS
- 5 CAM, nursing and the meanings of care 93
KAHRYN HUGHES
- 6 Nurses and midwives in alternative health care: comparative processes of boundary re-configuration in Israel 113
JUDITH T. SHUVAL AND SKY E. GROSS

PART III

Public health and patient issues

135

- 7 'Latent' and 'realised' risk cultures: woman-centred midwifery and CAM 137
KAREN LANE
- 8 CAM, holistic wellness nursing and the new public health 156
EMILY HANSEN
- Index* 177