
CONTENTS

- CHAPTER 1 Introduction (6)
- CHAPTER 2 Contemporary and expected use of new technology by journalists. (11)
- CHAPTER 3 Health and safety issues — psychological and physical. (30)
- CHAPTER 4 Work environment issues — changes in work and job content; training and retraining; ergonomics; effect on labor relations. (60)
- CHAPTER 5 Economic and professional issues — salaries and remuneration; effects on media profits; concentration of media ownership; copyright and intellectual rights. (67)
- CHAPTER 6 Case study — Australia. By John Lawrence, Australian Journalists' Association. (83)
- CHAPTER 7 Case study — Finland. By Oili Tolvanen, chairman, committee of technology, Union of Journalists, Finland. (122)
- CHAPTER 8 Case study — Latin America. By Hernan Uribe O., Vice Secretary-General, Latin American Federation of Journalists. (128)
- CHAPTER 9 Case study — The Arab Countries. By Sajjad Al-Ghazi, Assistant Secretary-General, Federation of Arab Journalists. (144)
- CHAPTER 10 Summary and conclusions. (152)