

Contents

Editor's Preface	vii
Foreword	ix
Introduction	1
1 Definitions and Dimensions	5
Event and structure	6
Famines as history	11
Famine as demographic crisis	19
Famine chronology	26
2 Theories of Famine Causation	29
Climate	29
Population	34
Neo-Malthusianism and its critics	39
Food entitlements and availability	42
3 Famine in Peasant Societies	47
Adaptation and survival	47
Peasant societies	50
Subsistence and subordination	56
The limits to peasant adaptation	61
The great escape	68
4 Famine's 'Victims'	73
Famine responses	75
The 'moral economy' of the poor	80
Women in famine	86
Migration	91
5 Subsistence and the State	96
Political famine	97
The state as provider	99
Poor laws and corn laws	104

The trials of laissez-faire	109
Famine and the critique of state power	115
6 Other People's Hunger	119
Conquest and colonialism	121
Masters and subjects	127
The politics of famine relief	135
'Food is power'	140
Notes on Further Reading	143
Index	151