

CONTENTS

Preface	v
Outline	vii
Table of Cases	xxix
List of Statutory Materials	lvii
Abbreviations	cxxi
BOOK I: FOUNDATIONS	1
Part I: Private Law in European Integration	1
I. European Integration	2
1. The integration program	2
a) Integration as an objective.....	2
b) Integration of peoples.....	4
2. Means of integration	5
3. Early steps towards integration	6
II. The EU Economic Constitution and Private Law	8
1. Concept and anchoring in EU law.....	8
2. Hierarchy of EU policy objectives.....	10
3. The market economy and its elements	12
a) Conceptual elements	12
b) Their protection in primary EU law.....	12
c) Conclusion.....	14
III. The Concept and Idiosyncratic Nature of EU Private Law	15
1. Private law and public law.....	15
a) The division in historical and comparative perspective	15
b) Hybridisation: the rise of mandatory law	18
c) Formal and substantive understanding of private law.....	19
d) (Re-)Distributive effects.....	22
e) Incentivising effects	23
2. EU private law and European private law	25
a) Common legal history.....	26
b) Comparative law and uniform private law	27
c) Sets of principles	28

3.	EU private law: policy dependence.....	31
a)	Union competence as flowing from its objectives.....	31
b)	Specification of policy objectives.....	32
c)	The private-public mix.....	34
d)	An independent discipline.....	35
e)	A result of harmonisation.....	36
f)	Fragments, evolution and extension.....	39
4.	A triangular field of forces.....	41
5.	Conclusion.....	43
IV.	Civil Matters – Article 81 TFEU.....	43
1.	Judicial cooperation, the area of justice and private law.....	43
2.	Historical background of Article 81 TFEU.....	45
3.	“Civil” and “commercial” matters.....	46
4.	Interpretation by the Court of Justice.....	47
a)	Autonomous interpretation.....	47
b)	The exercise of public powers.....	49
5.	Conclusion.....	52
V.	Civil Matters and EU Private Law.....	53
1.	Private law in Europe, European private law and EU private law.....	53
2.	Interconnections: Article 220 EEC.....	54
3.	Cross-systematic reasoning.....	55
4.	Conclusion.....	57
Part II: Development of EU Private Law.....		59
VI.	Historical Survey.....	60
1.	The first phase (1958–1985).....	60
a)	The founding Treaties – ECSC and EEC.....	60
b)	Freedom of establishment and company law.....	60
c)	The Common Market and the distortion of competition.....	61
d)	Approximation of laws – the self-abortive Article 100 EEC.....	62
2.	The second phase – The Internal Market Programme (1985 onwards).....	63
a)	The 1985 White Paper on the internal market.....	63
b)	The Single European Act.....	64
3.	The third phase – post-Maastricht (1992 onwards).....	66
a)	The Maastricht Treaty.....	66
b)	Labour law.....	66
4.	The fourth phase – post-Amsterdam (1999 onwards).....	68
a)	The Treaty of Amsterdam.....	68
b)	Anti-discrimination measures.....	69
c)	Private international law.....	69
d)	Contract law and the Common European Sales Law (CESL).....	70

5.	The fifth phase – self-restraint and digitalisation (2015 onwards).....	72
a)	Major historical events.....	72
b)	Consequences for private law	73
VII.	Negative Harmonisation.....	75
1.	Concept	75
2.	Powers of the Court of Justice	76
a)	Types of proceedings.....	76
b)	Effects in matters of private law – examples	78
3.	Harmonising effect	79
a)	Resistance of Member States.....	79
b)	Effective harmonisation.....	81
c)	Divergent Member State reactions	81
VIII.	Positive Harmonisation – Constitutional Issues	83
1.	The concept of harmonisation in EU law	83
2.	Legislative bases and the legislative procedure	85
a)	The principle of conferral	85
b)	Ordinary and special legislative procedures	85
c)	The example of the Succession Regulation: family-related?	86
d)	Competition law	87
3.	Legislative bases and available instruments.....	88
a)	Survey.....	88
b)	Regulation or Directive – a difficult choice.....	88
4.	Territorial scope of the proposed measure	90
a)	Europe à la carte	90
b)	Strategic considerations	91
5.	Legislative bases relevant for private law	93
a)	Survey.....	93
b)	Article 114 TFEU: internal market legislation.....	93
c)	Enhanced cooperation	95
6.	Multiple legislative bases.....	96
IX.	Positive Harmonisation – Forms and Degree.....	98
1.	The background of uniform private law	98
2.	Maximum harmonisation.....	102
3.	Minimum harmonisation	103
4.	Minimum or maximum harmonisation – the choice in legislation.....	105
a)	Market-related harmonisation.....	106
b)	Market integration and minimum harmonisation.....	108
c)	Economic analysis of full harmonisation	109
5.	Identifying maximum and minimum harmonisation in secondary EU law	112
a)	Consumer law	112

b)	Company law	114
c)	Future perspective.....	116
6.	Optional Harmonisation	116
a)	Concept	116
b)	Commercial Agency Directive.....	117
7.	Harmonisation by a 28th model.....	118
a)	Concept	118
b)	Political difficulties connected with Article 352 TFEU.....	119
c)	Outlook.....	120
8.	Conclusion.....	121
X.	Achievements and Thematic Clusters of EU Private Law.....	121
1.	Company law.....	122
2.	Commercial transactions.....	125
3.	Competition	128
4.	Intellectual property.....	131
a)	General	131
b)	Copyright	132
c)	Design.....	133
d)	Trademarks	134
e)	Know-how.....	134
f)	Patents and related rights	134
5.	Consumer protection.....	136
a)	General	136
b)	Trade in goods	138
c)	Service contracts.....	138
d)	Enforcement.....	141
6.	Labour law	142
a)	Free movement of workers.....	142
b)	European Framework Agreements.....	144
c)	Minimum harmonisation of labour law.....	144
7.	Anti-discrimination measures	146
8.	Private international law.....	148
a)	International commercial law.....	149
b)	Family law and succession	150
c)	Cooperation in international civil litigation.....	152
9.	Mixed public/private law instruments.....	153
a)	Holistic market regulation	153
b)	Private law remedies as sanctions	155
10.	Conclusion: a general theme?	157
a)	Market rationality.....	158
b)	The rationality of the European social model	160
c)	Enforcement rationality	161
d)	Legislative technique.....	162

Part III: Sources of EU Private Law	163
XI. Concept, Classification and Hierarchy of Legal Sources	164
1. Sources of law and legal formants.....	164
a) Concept: sources of law and legal communication.....	164
b) Cultural diversity and legal formants	166
c) Legal communication on EU private law.....	167
d) Impact on the sources of EU private law.....	168
2. Classification of sources.....	169
3. Internal hierarchy and interaction of EU sources of law	171
a) Formal perspective.....	171
b) Interaction of primary and secondary law.....	172
c) Legal sources of the same rank.....	174
d) Conclusion on internal hierarchy.....	174
4. The hierarchy of EU law and national law.....	175
a) The principle of primacy	175
b) Internalising national constitutional principles in EU secondary law	177
c) Internalising national constitutional principles in EU primary law.....	178
d) Deference to the national constitution	180
5. The hierarchy of EU law and international Conventions	181
a) Conventions and secondary EU law	181
b) Conventions and primary EU law.....	183
c) The special case of the European Human Rights Convention ...	185
XII. The Treaties and the Charter	185
1. Introduction	185
2. From Member State duties to direct effect in private relations.....	187
3. Basic freedoms	189
a) National private law as a restriction? The scope of the basic freedoms	189
b) A systemic look at the internal market.....	191
c) Private and collective action	192
d) EU-dimension and domestic cases	194
e) Justification of restrictions	195
f) Freedom of establishment of companies.....	197
g) Free movement of EU citizens: the names of individuals.....	200
h) Conclusion: direct horizontal effect of basic freedoms	202
4. Fundamental rights.....	203
a) Introduction.....	203
b) Direct and indirect horizontal effects	204
c) Personal rights flowing from the Charter	209
d) Scope of the Charter	212

e)	Practice of the Court of Justice I: fundamental rights as interpretative aids.....	214
f)	Practice of the Court of Justice II: right to collective action and basic freedoms	216
g)	Practice of the Court of Justice III: direct effect of the prohibition of discrimination	217
h)	Practice of the Court of Justice IV: conferral of direct horizontal effect to Directives	219
i)	Practice of the Court of Justice V: effective protection of rights	220
j)	Conclusion.....	222
XIII.	General Principles of Law (Common Aspects)	223
1.	Historical background	224
2.	References to general principles in EU law.....	227
a)	References in the Treaties	227
b)	Establishment by the Court of Justice.....	228
c)	References in secondary EU law.....	229
3.	Concept and categories of general principles.....	230
a)	A definition?	230
b)	General principles of EU law and general principles of civil law	232
4.	Ascertainment	234
a)	The role of comparative law.....	234
b)	Mangold and Audiolux	236
c)	Comparison and interest analysis.....	239
5.	Rank, functions and relation with other sources	241
6.	Conclusion	242
XIV.	Directives	243
1.	General aspects.....	244
a)	Concept and addressees – two-tiered legislation	244
b)	Historical antecedents in uniform private law.....	245
c)	Directives as instruments of harmonisation – an evaluation ...	246
d)	Conclusion.....	249
2.	Private-law content and individual freedom	249
3.	The implementation duty of the Member States.....	250
a)	Extent and special features of implementation.....	250
b)	Non-regression duty.....	252
c)	Sanctions: liability of Member States for non-compliance.....	254
4.	Effects of Directives on private relations.....	257
a)	The consistent interpretation of national law.....	257
b)	The foundations of direct effect – vertical relations.....	260

	c) No direct effect in horizontal relations	263
	d) Ways out of the impasse.....	264
	5. Divergent national implementation and private international law.....	267
	a) Remaining divergences and the conflicts-first approach	267
	b) European and national choice-of-law rules	270
	6. Conclusion	270
XV.	Regulations	271
	1. General aspects.....	271
	a) Terminology	271
	b) Addressees and the method of legislation	272
	c) No general preference for Directives.....	273
	2. Private-law content and individual freedom	274
	a) Competition law	274
	b) Mandatory transport Regulations	275
	c) Dispositive Regulations.....	275
	d) Optional models	276
	3. Substantive-law Regulations and private international law.....	277
	a) Territorial scope – unilateral outward conflict rules.....	278
	b) Supplementing national law – inward conflicts.....	279
	c) Inconsistencies of inward and outward conflict rules.....	281
	d) Application of equivalent substantive laws of third States	282
	e) Application of Regulations by the courts of third States	283
	4. Conclusion	284
XVI.	Decisions (Uniform Law Conventions).....	284
	1. General aspects.....	284
	a) Executive and legislative forms.....	284
	b) Decisions and international agreements of the EU.....	285
	2. International Conventions on uniform private law.....	285
	a) Legal unification and law-making treaties	285
	b) Conventions precluding accession of the EU and its legislative competence	287
	c) Opening Conventions for Regional Economic Integration Organisations	288
	3. The treaty-making powers of the Union	290
	a) Basic principles	290
	b) Exclusive treaty-making power and conclusion “in the interest of the Union”	291
	c) Shared treaty-making power and mixed agreements	292
	4. Declarations and legal certainty for private actors	294
	a) Background in international law	294

	b) Declarations on the acquis : Hague Choice of Court Convention and insurance	295
	c) Reservations without permission: accession to the Rail Transport Convention (COTIF)	296
	5. Conclusion	297
XVII.	Soft Law	299
	1. Origins and concept	300
	a) Historical background: from custom to deliberate drafting	301
	b) Bases in EU law	302
	2. Public soft law for private relations	304
	a) Occurrence	304
	b) Addressees	305
	c) Content	307
	d) Preparation of binding EU law	308
	e) Exchange of information on “best practices” between Member State authorities	309
	f) Guidance on EU enforcement practices	310
	g) Legal effects	311
	3. Private soft law in the EU	312
	a) General aspects of self-regulation	312
	b) Terminology	313
	c) Origin	315
	d) Grounds of commitment	316
	e) Legal effects	318
	4. Functions of soft rules in EU private law	319
	5. Conclusion	322
	BOOK II: PRINCIPLES	325
	Part IV: Principles of the Legal Community	325
XVIII.	Equivalence and Effectiveness	326
	1. “Procedural” autonomy of the Member States	327
	a) What is “procedural”?	327
	b) Is it a “principle”?	329
	2. Equivalence	330
	a) General aspects	330
	b) Similarity of actions	331
	c) Legal consequences – examples	332
	3. Effectiveness	333
	a) General aspects	333

	b) Operation of the principle of effectiveness.....	336
	c) Legal consequences for damages claims.....	337
	d) Summary and critique.....	339
XIX.	Proportionality.....	341
	1. General aspects.....	341
	2. Balancing of interests and values	342
	a) Balancing by the legislature.....	342
	b) Balancing by the courts.....	343
	3. Judicial review.....	344
	a) Constitutional basis.....	344
	b) References to proportionality in specific acts	345
	4. Proportionality in EU private law.....	347
	a) Information duties.....	347
	b) Contractual remedies.....	347
	c) Compensation.....	349
	d) Judicial review.....	350
	5. Conclusion	350
XX.	Legal Certainty.....	351
	1. General aspects.....	351
	2. Subjective and objective legal certainty.....	353
	a) The protection of legitimate expectations	353
	b) An attribute of the law	353
	c) Individual rights and legal certainty	355
	3. Recitals of EU legislation.....	357
	a) Function and rank of legal certainty	357
	b) References to legal certainty as explanations of legislation.....	357
	c) Inconsistencies	359
	4. Validity of agreements	359
	a) Competition law	359
	b) Protecting the validity of contracts in other fields	361
	5. Time-limits.....	362
	a) General aspects	362
	b) Procedural time-limits.....	363
	c) Time-limits in private law	364
	6. Non-retroactivity of changes in the law	365
	a) Legislation.....	365
	b) Changing case law	367
	7. Conclusion	369
XXI.	Prohibition of Abuse and Fraud	369
	1. General aspects.....	369
	a) Concepts and comparative assessment.....	369
	b) Relation between evasion of law and abuse of rights.....	371

2.	Recognition in EU law.....	372
a)	Recognition of national defences of fraud and abuse or an EU principle?.....	373
b)	The EU principle prohibiting fraud and abuse	374
3.	Selected cases	377
a)	Abusive exercise of internal market rights	377
b)	Abuse of rights in labour law	380
c)	Abusive claims of liability.....	381
d)	Evasion of law in the conflict of laws	383
4.	Conclusion	386
XXII.	Sincere Cooperation and Mutual Recognition	387
1.	Role and basis in the Union.....	387
2.	Vertical and horizontal cooperation.....	388
3.	Impact on private disputes.....	390
a)	Legislation: the establishment of cooperation networks	390
b)	Case law I: significance in private international law	392
c)	Case law II: cross-border insolvency.....	394
4.	Conclusion	395
Part V: Market Principles.....		397
XXIII.	Undistorted Competition	398
1.	General aspects.....	398
2.	Undistorted competition and intellectual property rights.....	401
a)	Ambivalence of IP rights with regards to competition.....	401
b)	Case law favouring trademarks.....	401
c)	Parallel imports and trade marks	403
3.	Conflict of interests and equal business opportunities	404
4.	Conclusion	405
XXIV.	Private Autonomy and Freedom of Contract	405
1.	Terminology.....	406
2.	Comparative survey	407
3.	Specific forms of contractual freedom	409
4.	Freedom of contract in EU law	412
a)	Primary law	412
b)	Secondary law	414
5.	Freedom of contract in the jurisprudence of EU courts.....	416
a)	Contractual freedom as a normative principle of EU law.....	416
b)	Supplementary or corrective principle?.....	418
c)	Freedom of contract and third-party effects	422
d)	Elements of the freedom of contract.....	425
6.	Conclusion	426

XXV.	The Right to Property.....	426
1.	Functions of property.....	427
a)	Private law.....	427
b)	Private property and distributive justice	428
c)	Property in a market economy.....	430
2.	The reservation of Article 345 TFEU.....	431
3.	Property rights in EU law.....	433
a)	Primary law of the Treaty: market-related provisions	433
b)	Secondary legislation of the EU.....	434
c)	A general principle and the Human Rights Convention.....	437
d)	A fundamental right: Article 17 ChFR	439
4.	Scope of protection	440
a)	Autonomous interpretation.....	440
b)	Objects of protection.....	441
c)	Inheritance.....	443
5.	Infringements and justification	443
a)	Deprivation and regulation of use.....	443
b)	The significance for private law.....	444
c)	Excessively long periods and grave limitations of use	445
d)	Retroactive interferences	446
e)	Disrespect of retention of title.....	446
f)	Discrimination	448
g)	Justification.....	449
6.	Conclusion	449
	Part VI: Solidarity Principles	451
XXVI.	Equality and Non-Discrimination	452
1.	General aspects.....	452
a)	Equality – a difficult concept.....	452
b)	Formal and material equality in retrospect.....	454
c)	Legal approaches designed to remove inequality	456
2.	Non-discrimination in private law	457
3.	Internal market-related prohibitions of discrimination.....	458
a)	Primary law	458
b)	Secondary law	461
c)	The Geo-blocking Regulation	461
d)	The limits of market-related anti-discrimination measures.....	463
4.	Socio-political prohibitions of discrimination.....	464
a)	Primary law	464
b)	Secondary law	466
c)	Concept of non-discrimination as dignity-related.....	467

5.	Justification	469
a)	Statistical or structural discrimination, positive action and justification	469
b)	Age discrimination: protection of older workers	470
c)	Age discrimination: protection of young workers	472
d)	Sex discrimination in insurance	473
6.	Conclusion	475
XXVII.	Good Faith.....	476
1.	General aspects.....	476
a)	Concept.....	476
b)	Comparative perspective	478
2.	Good faith in EU secondary law	480
a)	Introduction	480
b)	Duty to negotiate in good faith.....	481
c)	Performance of contractual obligations in good faith	482
d)	Good faith as a standard of review.....	483
3.	Good faith in case law I: interpretation of EU acts.....	485
a)	Unfair commercial practices	485
b)	Unfair contract terms.....	487
4.	Good faith in case law II: references to an unwritten principle.....	489
a)	Preliminary remarks.....	489
b)	Reference to national concepts of good faith.....	490
c)	Pre-contractual duties of information	491
d)	Limitation to reliance on formal invalidity	493
e)	Venire contra factum proprium	494
f)	Cooperation duties	495
g)	Temporal effect.....	496
5.	Conclusion	498
XXVIII.	Protection of the Weaker Party.....	499
1.	Secondary EU law	500
a)	Weakness and rules on jurisdiction	500
b)	Weakness in passenger transport	501
c)	Weakness in the network industries	502
2.	Case law of the Court of Justice	503
a)	References dependent on secondary law.....	503
b)	The difficult ascertainment of weakness.....	504
c)	Who is weak? The example of persons acting in dual capacity	506
3.	Conclusion	507
XXIX.	Consumer Protection.....	507
1.	Background: the emergence of consumer protection	508
2.	Primary law.....	510

3.	The formalisation of the consumer concept.....	512
a)	From politics to law.....	512
b)	The consumer concept and legal persons.....	513
c)	The consumer concept and persons acting in dual capacity.....	514
d)	The consumer concept and dual purpose contracts.....	514
e)	Consumers without consumption.....	516
4.	The Court's case law on consumer matters.....	516
a)	Doorstep selling.....	516
b)	Sale of consumer goods.....	517
c)	Payment services.....	518
d)	Passenger rights.....	519
5.	Conclusion.....	521
XXX.	Workers' Protection.....	522
1.	Background: the rise of labour law.....	522
a)	The peculiarities of labour relations.....	522
b)	Structural differences in law – who is a worker?.....	523
2.	Primary law.....	526
a)	Article 151 et seq. TFEU.....	526
b)	The Charter rights of workers.....	527
3.	Secondary law.....	529
4.	Case law of the Court of Justice.....	531
a)	Protection of workers.....	531
b)	Workers as weaker parties.....	535
5.	Conclusion.....	537
BOOK III: IMPLEMENTATION AND ENFORCEMENT.....		539
Part VII: Institutional and Procedural Framework.....		540
XXXI.	The Court of Justice of the European Union.....	542
1.	Antecedents and development.....	542
a)	The Court of the European Coal and Steel Community.....	542
b)	The submission of prejudicial questions under Article 41 ECSC.....	544
c)	The submission of prejudicial questions under Article 177 EEC.....	545
2.	The Court of Justice.....	546
a)	Foundations and jurisdiction.....	546
b)	Composition.....	548
c)	Formations of the Court.....	550
3.	The procedural enforcement of private law in the Union.....	552
a)	Enforcement by the Member States – procedural autonomy and its limits.....	552

	b) Duties of cooperation.....	553
	c) The Court of Justice's procedures relevant for private law.....	555
	4. Law-finding in the Court of Justice.....	558
	a) The binding force of precedent.....	558
	b) Limits.....	559
	c) Overruling.....	560
	5. Conclusion.....	562
XXXII.	The Referral Procedure.....	563
	1. General aspects.....	563
	a) A procedure without a plaintiff.....	563
	b) A dialogue of increasing frequency.....	565
	c) Law-finding and fact-finding.....	566
	2. The referring body: a court or tribunal of a Member State.....	567
	a) Court or tribunal: an EU concept.....	567
	b) Arbitration panels.....	568
	c) "Ex-post" referrals.....	570
	d) Indirect referrals.....	571
	3. Optional and compulsory referrals.....	572
	a) Optional referrals.....	572
	b) Compulsory referrals.....	573
	c) Remedies against the refusal of referrals.....	576
	4. The subject matter of the referral.....	577
	a) EU law.....	577
	b) International Conventions on uniform private law.....	578
	5. Streamlining the referral procedure.....	582
	a) Reducing the role of the Advocate General.....	582
	b) First example: forum selection agreements.....	584
	c) Second example: jurisdiction in motor liability insurance.....	586
	d) Third example: director's liability in insolvency.....	588
	e) Fourth example: prescription of air passengers' claims.....	590
	6. Conclusion.....	592
	a) A unique institution.....	592
	b) Drawbacks.....	593
	c) Need for a comprehensive reform.....	594
	Part VIII: Legal Method.....	597
XXXIII.	The Interpretation of EU Private Law.....	598
	1. Comparative background.....	599
	a) Western Europe.....	599
	b) Eastern Europe.....	601

2.	Public international law: the interpretation of treaties	603
a)	Articles 31–33 of the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties.....	603
b)	Significance for the EU Treaties.....	604
3.	The emancipation of EU law.....	606
a)	An autonomous legal system	606
b)	Interpretative guidelines for national law.....	608
c)	The interpretation of “gold-plated” law	610
4.	The aim of interpretation: uniformity vs. diversity	613
a)	Uniformity as a general principle of interpretation	613
b)	References to national law and standards.....	613
5.	Textual interpretation and multiple languages.....	616
6.	Historical interpretation.....	618
a)	Legislative materials	618
b)	Recitals	619
7.	Systematic or contextual interpretation	620
a)	Micro-system.....	620
b)	Macro-system.....	621
8.	Teleological interpretation.....	623
a)	The purposes of measures	623
b)	Deficient interest analysis in private law	625
9.	Comparative interpretation	629
a)	The role of comparison in the Union.....	629
b)	Pros and cons of comparative considerations.....	630
c)	Examples of comparative interpretation.....	632
10.	Economic interpretation	634
a)	General survey	634
b)	Economic arguments in the courts	636
c)	Economic arguments in the Court of Justice.....	637
11.	Interaction of methods and risk of arbitrariness	639
12.	Conclusion	641
XXXIV.	Gap-Filling in EU Private Law.....	643
1.	Concept and role of gaps in EU private law	643
a)	Occurrence and legal theory	643
b)	Gaps in a fragmentary legal order	645
2.	Methods of gap-filling	646
a)	Legislation.....	646
b)	Broad interpretation.....	647
c)	Application by analogy	648
d)	General principles.....	649
e)	Recourse to national law.....	652
3.	Conclusion	653

BOOK IV: THE EXTERNAL DIMENSION OF EU PRIVATE LAW	655
Part IX: The Policy Approach: Scope Rules	657
XXXV. Unilateral Scope Rules on the External Reach of EU Private Law....	659
1. The transformation of cross-border transactions into domestic transactions.....	659
a) Market access and the external reach of EU law	659
b) Private law: products liability and package tour operators.....	661
2. The antecedent of international competition law	662
a) Economic entity approach, place of implementation and effects doctrine	663
b) The significance for private enforcement: damages claims	664
c) The harmony of public and private enforcement	665
3. The external reach of private law under scope rules for public enforcement	666
a) Fragmentary scope rules for mixed sector-specific regimes	666
b) The scope of application of the Data Protection Regulation.....	668
c) Compensation claims.....	670
d) Recourse to the applicable national law.....	670
4. Unilateral scope rules and the corresponding law of third States.....	671
5. Scope rules in the absence of clear provisions	673
a) Purpose and legislative intent	673
b) Statuta personalia and statuta realia	675
c) Statuta mixta and effects.....	677
6. Contractual submission to the (extraterritorial) application of EU law	679
7. Conclusion	680
XXXVI. International Coordination by Treaty.....	681
1. Multilateral Conventions on uniform private law	681
a) The varying and inconsistent role of the Union	681
b) The Union's membership in international organisations sponsoring uniform law.....	683
2. Exporting EU private law.....	684
a) Liberalisation and harmonisation of private law.....	684
b) Harmonisation of private law in ENP countries	686
3. Coordinated equivalence	691
a) Features of international administrative law.....	691
b) Consequences for private litigation.....	692
4. Conclusion	692

Part X: The Legal Certainty Approach: Bilateral Conflict Rules.....	695
XXXVII. Choice of Law.....	696
1. The incomplete acquis of bilateral conflict rules.....	696
2. The pros and cons of universal application.....	698
a) Private interests vs. public interests.....	698
b) Historical background	699
c) Practical considerations.....	700
d) Theoretical objections	701
3. Consequences for the conflict of laws	703
a) Party expectations, bilateral conflict rules and the law of the Union	703
b) EU private law rules as overriding mandatory provisions.....	703
c) Bilateralisation of unilateral scope rules.....	706
4. Conclusion	707
XXXVIII. Procedural Matters	707
1. Jurisdiction – EU law and national law.....	707
a) Personal status.....	708
b) Civil and commercial matters – Brussels I.....	709
c) The extension of Brussels I jurisdiction to third-State relations.....	710
d) The extension of Member State jurisdiction by special EU instruments.....	712
2. Effects of third-State proceedings in the Union.....	715
a) Recognition and enforcement of third-State judgments	715
b) Lis pendens in third States	717
c) International agreements.....	718
d) The Hague Judgments Convention	720
3. Conclusion	721
Epilogue.....	723
1. The present – assessment	723
a) The demand for EU private law	723
b) Resistance	724
c) System and symbiosis.....	725
d) Implementation	726
e) External appearance	728

2. The future – some propositions.....	728
a) Selection of legislative projects	728
b) Legislative technique and formalities	731
c) Implementation	732
d) The external view.....	732
Bibliography	735
Index	777
About the Author	787