

CONTENS

PART A – Employees, their descriptions, workforce requirements, improving qualifications and the EU common agricultural policy

1. Aim of the project	7
2. Selected methods for performing the analysis	8
2.1 Methodology	8
2.2 The survey process	9
3. Outputs of the questionnaire survey	10
3.1 Employees – numbers	10
3.2 Employees – the structure according to their positions (levels of management) ...	13
3.3 Seasonal workers and citizens of foreign countries	14
3.4 Employees – evaluation of their qualification structure	17
3.5 The demand for workforce	18
3.6 Methods for hiring new employees	22
3.7 Demand for workforce in the future	24
3.8 Improving qualifications	26
3.9 Common agricultural policy	32
3.10 Consultancy and information support	33
4. Conclusion	36
5. Proposals and recommendations	39

PART B – Farmer intentions, perceptions and opinions in Czech Agriculture. A personal and social context for the employment of labour on farms

Preface	43
Summary	44
1. Introduction	46
1.1 Farming in the European context	46
1.2 Farmer behaviour and decision – making	47
2. Research Method	48
2.1 Aims	48
2.2 Data Collection	48
2.3 The data base	49
3. Results and Interpretations	50
3.1 The farmer respondents	50
3.2 The farmers’ goals and intentions; what they are trying to do	51
3.3 The respondents’ perceptions of farmers, farming and modern agricultural practices	53
3.4 The farmers’ opinions of EU policy for agriculture	54
3.5 Possible categorisation of farmer behaviour	55
3.6 The analysis of items on which farmers are relatively neutral	57
3.7 The degree of agreement among farmers in their responses to statements	58
3.8 Knowledge of EU policy for agriculture	60
3.9 Use of ICT on farms	61
3.10 Use of Regional Information Centres	61
3.11 Use of Agricultural Consultants	62
3.12 Diversification; non-agricultural activities	63
4. Conclusions	64